ARTICLE III PURPOSE

The specific purpose(s) for which the corporation is organized is (are):

1. To serve as an educational tool in the portrayal of the history of Americans of African Descent, who served in the United States (Horse) Cavalry during the Civil War and Indian Wars, through the re-enactment of battles, living history demonstrations and educational presentations.
2. To serve as an educational and crime prevention tool by targeting minority youth between the ages of 10 years and young adulthood. The use of re-enactments, along with teaching and discipline, will enable the adult members to instill pride, a feeling of self-worth, a feeling of independence and accomplishment in the youth that, because of their living environment, could become a burden to society.

3. To enrich the knowledge of the general public regarding the contributions, courage, forbearance, hardships, and devotion to duty of minority combatants and non-combatants, that fought for and served this country during its time of need, without recreating the prejudices of the past.
4. To instill within the Unit, an awareness of the need to faithfully and accurately reproduce the uniforms, equipment and other accouterments, military customs, bearing, courtesy, drills and the military style, camp life and battlefield conditions of the period.
5. To promote rules, regulations of and safety as an integral part of any unit activities.
6. To correspond and correlate an exchange of ideas, materials and programs with other organizations. To invite association and extend membership to all persons seriously interested in the purpose(s) of this corporation, who demonstrate(s) respect to the organization, its ideas and members.
7. To encourage Americans of African Descent in Florida to know and understand their place in history of the United States. To instill pride and purpose in people everywhere by informing them as to who, what and why they are, because of their past history.
8. To promote and encourage the protection and preservation of military and historical sites and relics across the State and Country.
9. The Brooksville Buffalo Soldiers, Inc. shall be operated as a non-profit organization for the benefit of members in good standing. No part of the earnings or dues shall inure or accrue to the benefit of any officer, member, private individual or group. Neither shall any item, materials or real property given in trust to, or acquired by the Unit, inure or accrue to the benefit of any officer, member, private individual or group.
10. To do everything necessary, proper, advisable or convenient for the accomplishment of the purpose(s) herein set forth and to all things incidental thereto or connected therewith which do these Articles of Incorporation not forbid by a governing or applicable law or.
