ARTICLE VI

The extent of personal liability, if any, for directors, officers, or members for corporate obligations and the methods of enforcement and collection, are as follows: NONE. Further, the Directors and Officers shall be exempt from liability and/or indemnified from costs and judgments to the full extent permitted by Florida law. In the event Florida law is subsequently amended to authorize the further elimination or limitation of the liability of Directors or Officers of nonprofit corporations, then the liability of Directors and Officers of the Corporation in addition to the limitation on personal liability provided under this Article, shall be limited to the fullest extent permitted by such later amended Florida law.

ARTICLE VII

The Corporation shall not have capital stock.

ARTICLE VIII

A. The corporation elects to have no members. Any action which would otherwise require a vote of members shall require only a vote of the members of the Board of directors, and no meeting or vote of members shall be required for this Corporation, any provisions of the Articles of Incorporation of this Corporation or the Bylaws of the corporation to the contrary notwithstanding.

B. The Corporation , a church, elects the ecclesiastical form of church government, whereby the Board of Directors shall be the highest ecclesiastical tribunal of the organization, and shall be the final arbiter of all questions of doctrine, discipline, property, policy, and polity of every kind and nature whatsoever, and the Board of Directors in its deliberations as the ecclesiastical government of the organization shall use as its sole and final authority and standard the Holy Scriptures, Old and New Testaments, Reina Valera 60th Version.

ARTICLE IX

This Corporation is a not-for-profit corporation and is not organized for the private gain of any person. It is organized under the Non-Profit Corporation Act exclusively for religious purposes as a church

This Corporation is organized and operated exclusively for religious purposes within the meaning of Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986(the "Code").

No substantial part of the activities of this corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation and the corporation shall not participate or intervene in any political campaign (including the publishing or distribution of statements) on behalf of any candiate for public office.

The property of the Corporation is irrevocably dedicated to nonprofit religious purposes. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of its directors, officers, or to any other individual, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered, and to make payments in the furtherance of the nonprofit religious purposes of the Corporation.

Upon the winding up and dissolution of the Corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or adecuately providing for all the debts, obligations, and liabilities of the Corporation, distribute the remaining assets of the Corporation exclusively for the nonprofit religious purposes shall distribute the remaining assets of the corporation to such organization or organizations which are organized and operated exclusively for the nonprofit religious purposes of the Corporation and which are tax exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Code, as amended, as the Board of Directors in its sole discretion shall determine.

ARTICLE X

In furtherance of its religious nonprofit tax-exempt purposes, the Corporation shall have the following powers and authority:

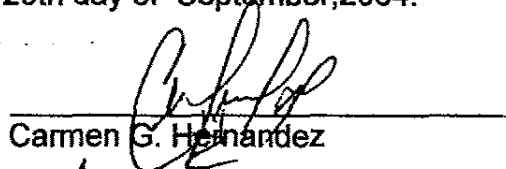

- (a) To do all acts, perform all functions, and carry on all activities permitted by the nonprofit corporation laws of the State of Florida, or of any other State in which the Corporation is qualified to act.
- (b) To have and exercise all powers and rights enjoyed by corporations generally in the State of Florida, and in any State in which the Corporation is qualified to act, as long as the exercise of such powers is not specifically prohibited for nonprofit religious corporation.
- (c) To use all media, whether now known or hereafter discovered, including but not limited to print, television, and radio.
- (d) To exercise such incidental powers as may reasonably be necessary to carry out the purposes for which the Corporation is established, provided that such incidental powers shall be exercised in a manner consistent with its tax-exempt status as a religious organization as set forth in Section 501 (c)(3) of the Code.
- (e) Notwithstanding any other provisions of the Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activity or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the nonprofit religious purposes of the Corporation, and the Corporation shall not carry on any activity not permitted to be carried on (a) by a Corporation exempt from any Federal Income Tax under Section 501 (c)(3) of the Code, or under the corresponding section of any future United States revenue law; or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under 170 (b)(1)(A)(i) of the Code, or the corresponding section of any future United States revenue law.

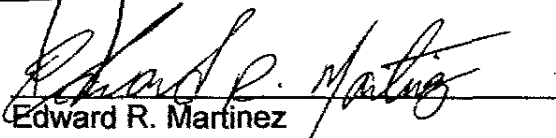

ARTICLE XI

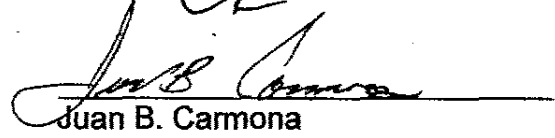

We , the undersigned Directos, certify that we are authorized to amend these articles, and we further certify that we understand that by signing these articles, we are subject to the penalties of perjury as set forth in the Florida Statutes as if we had signed these articles under oath.

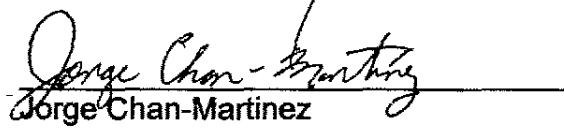

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned Directors have executed and submitted these Articles of Incorporation this 29th day of September, 2004.
