ARTICLE III
PURPOSES; POWERS

1. The purposes for which the Corporation is organized and operated are exclusively charitable and educational within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law.

2. The Corporation's charitable and educational goals shall be met primarily by its commitment to aid, service and develop the community of Pensacola, Florida, and surrounding areas to reach their fullest potential by providing social outreach and promoting educational success, spiritual growth and personal leadership.

3. As a means of accomplishing the above purposes and methods, in accordance with and in addition to the powers conferred by the laws of the State of Florida, the corporation shall have the following powers:

- a. Receiving and accepting gifts of money and property and holding the same for any of the purposes of the Corporation and its work.
- b. Raising and assisting in raising funds for the purposes herein set forth.
- c. Acquiring, owning, leasing, mortgaging and disposing of property, both real and personal.
- d. Accepting property and donations in trust for charitable purposes.
- e. Acquiring, holding, owning, selling, assigning, transferring, mortgaging, pledging, or otherwise disposing of shares of the capital stock, bonds, obligations or other securities of other corporations, domestic, or foreign, as investments or otherwise, in carrying out any of the purposes of the Corporation and, while the owner thereof, to exercise all rights, powers and privileges of ownership, including the power to vote thereon.

4. In the conduct of the affairs of the Corporation:

- a. The property of the Corporation is irrevocably dedicated to educational and charitable purposes, and no part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to its members, directors, officers or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered to it and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in this Article.
- b. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, nor shall it in any manner or to any extent participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office; nor shall the Corporation engage in any activities that are unlawful under applicable federal, state or local laws.
- c. The Corporation shall not:
 - i. Operate for the purpose of carrying on a trade or business for profit;

- ii. Accumulate income, invest income, or divert income, in a manner endangering its exempt status; or
- iii. Except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activity or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the purposes of the Corporation.
- iv. The Corporation's operations are to be conducted principally in the United States of America; the Corporation also may conduct operations in foreign countries, subject, however, to the laws of the State of Florida.
