TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

ARTICLE II Principal Office

The principal place of business and mailing address of this corporation shall be:

10550 SE 101st Ave Rd
Bellevue, FL 34420

ARTICLE III Purpose

The purposes, for which the corporation is organized, are as follows:

1. To demonstrate the vitality and integrity of the Gospel of Jesus Christ in order to advance the kingdom of God in today's generation
2. To build an institution to engage in training and education, advocacy, and dissemination of biblically-centered information and materials to all believers and the general public, relating to life and living.
3. To provide biblically-centered charitable assistance and humanitarian work including, but not limited to, the distribution of food and clothing, operating centers for the homeless, substance-abusing and mentally ill persons, orphanages, learning institutions, training, and rehabilitation centers.
4. To do everything necessary, suitable, or proper for the administration, accomplishment, attainment, or furtherance of (and to do every other act or thing incidental to, pertinent to, growing out of, or connected with) the purposes, objects, or powers set forth in these Articles, which alone or in association with others; to possess all the rights, powers, and privileges now or hereafter conferred by the laws of the State of Florida; in general, to carry on any activities and to do any of the things herein set forth to the same extent as a natural person or partnership might or could do; provided that nothing herein set forth shall be construed as authorizing the corporation to possess any purpose, object, or power to do any act or thing forbidden by law to a nonprofit corporation organized under the laws of the State of Florida.

ARTICLE IV

Duration

The duration of the corporate existence shall be perpetual.

ARTICLE V

Limitations

This Corporation is organized exclusively for religious and charitable purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and its Regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law and its regulations).

1. No part of the income of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in the furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article VII hereof.
2. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall constitute the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, or any initiative or referendum before the public, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including by publication or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office.
3. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not conduct or carry on any other activities not permitted to be conducted or carried out by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and its regulations, as now enacted or hereafter amended, (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law and its regulations); or by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170 (c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and its Regulations, as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law and its Regulations).

ARTICLE VI
Manner of election of Director/Members

The corporation shall have no voting members. The management of the affairs of the corporation shall be at all times vested in a Board of Directors, as defined by statute and in the corporation's bylaws. No Director shall have any right, title, or interest in or to any property of the corporation. The number of Directors constituting the first Board of Directors is 3, their names, and addresses being as follows:
