4. Solely for the above purposes, the corporation is empowered to exercise all rights and powers conferred by the laws of the State of Florida upon corporations not for profit, including, but without limitation thereon, to receive gifts, bequests and contributions in any form, to use, apply, invest and reinvest the principal and/or income therefrom or distribute the same for the above purposes.

5. Without in any way limiting the foregoing purposes, the corporation shall be authorized to receive contributions and to make distributions of cash and property which qualify as "qualifying distributions," as defined in Code Section 4942(g) or which qualify as a "set-aside," as described in Code Section 4942(h).

ARTICLE IV MANNER OF ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The method of election of the corporation's directors shall be stated in the bylaws.

ARTICLE V LIMITATIONS

1. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article III hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Code Section 501(c)(3), or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Code Section 170(c)(2), or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

2. The corporation will distribute its income for each tax year at a time and in a manner as not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by Code Section 4942, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

3. The corporation will not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Code Section 4941(d), or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

4. The corporation will not retain any excess business holdings as defined in Code Section 4943(c), or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

5. The corporation will not make any investments in a manner as to subject it to tax under Code Section 4944, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

6. The corporation will not make any taxable expenditures as defined in Code Section 4945(d), or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

ARTICLE VI
DISTRIBUTION OF ASSETS ON DISSOLUTION

In the event the corporation dissolves, the board of directors shall, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation, distribute all remaining assets of the corporation exclusively to charitable organizations which would then qualify under the provisions of Code Section 501(c)(3) and the treasury regulations, as now they exist, or as they may hereafter be amended.
