ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
NEW BEGINNINGS CHRISTIAN FAITH CENTER, INC.

We, the undersigned, with other persons, being desirous of forming a non-profit corporation for religious, charitable, literary and educational purposes, under the provisions of Chapter 617 of the Florida Statutes, do hereby agree to the following:

ARTICLE I
NAME OF CORPORATION

The name of the corporation is:

NEW BEGINNINGS CHRISTIAN FAITH CENTER, INC.

ARTICLE II
PURPOSES

The general nature of the objects and purposes of this corporation shall be:

1. To form, operate and maintain a church to be called NEW BEGINNINGS CHRISTIAN FAITH CENTER, and to establish, operate and maintain other churches of like faith wherever the Lord shall lead; to administer the ordinances of the New Testament, to minister to the spiritual needs of its members and all people everywhere.
2. To train Christian workers for the Lord's work, and to further the evangelization of the world by winning men, women, and children to a living faith in Jesus Christ.
3. To develop and carry out radio, television, internet and other innovative media ministries to preach the gospel and propagate the message of Jesus Christ.
4. To acquire property by grant, gift, purchase, devise or bequest, and hold and dispose of such property as the corporation shall require for the benefit of the church members and not for pecuniary profit.
5. To take, receive, own, hold, administer, distribute and dispose of property of all kinds, whether real, personal or mixed, acquired by gift, devise, bequest or otherwise, for the advancement, promotion, extension or maintenance of such causes and objects, or any of them; and, in addition to and not in limitation of the foregoing purposes and powers, the corporation may acquire, take, receive, hold, own, administer, distribute and dispose of, gifts or donations or property, real, personal or mixed, designated by the donors for causes or objects hereinabove mentioned, or any or either of them.

ARTICLE XI
RESTRICTED ACTIVITIES

1. No part of the net earnings, gains or assets of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to its trustees, officers, other private individuals, or organizations organized and operated for a profit (except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes as hereinabove stated).

2. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall be empowered to make the election authorized under §501(h) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. The corporation shall not participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

3. Notwithstanding any other provision herein, the corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on:

(a) by an organization exempt from federal income taxation under §501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 as an organization described in §501(c)(3) of such Code, or

(b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under §§170(c)(2), 2055(a)(2), or 2522(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

4. References herein to sections of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 are to provisions of such Code as those provisions are now enacted or to corresponding provisions of any future United States revenue law.

ARTICLE XII POWERS

To the end that the forgoing purposes and any other related charitable purposes and objects may be carried out, performed and accomplished, and to obtain funds or income for said charitable purposes, this corporation shall have the power to:

1. Acquire, either by gift, grant, purchase, devise or bequest, and to hold, own, manage, sell, grant, convey, mortgage, pledge, or otherwise encumber, lease, improve and dispose of real, personal or mixed property, wheresoever situated; to operate said properties, or any part thereof, or any business it may acquire in any location, in the name of the corporation or in any other manner, and for its benefit and in its behalf, through such persons or agent as it may determine or select from time to time by majority action of the trustees; to receive donations, gifts, and endowments, and to administer the same; all such real, personal and mixed property so acquired or received by gift, grant, devise, bequest or donation shall be used and employed, however, for religious, educational, charitable, social and benevolent purposes and not for pecuniary profit of the members.

2. Formulate and adopt bylaws and to alter and rescind the same, provided, however, that said bylaws shall be agreeable to, within and not beyond or contrary to the powers herein granted, or to any laws of the United States or State of Florida.

3. And in general, to possess and exercise all the rights, privileges, immunities and prerequisites now or hereafter authorized by or under the provisions of the laws of the State of Florida.

4. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the powers of this corporation are expressly limited to those of any organization described in §501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

ARTICLE XIII MEETINGS

1. The annual meeting for the election of members of the Board of Trustees shall be held as may be provided in the bylaws.

2. The corporation may provide in its bylaws for the holding of additional regular meetings and any special meetings, and shall provide notice of such meetings.

3. The percentage of the members necessary to constitute a quorum for the holding of any meetings shall be determined in the bylaws.

ARTICLE XIV DISTRIBUTION OF ASSETS UPON DISSOLUTION

1. No person, firm or corporation shall ever receive any dividends or profits from the undertaking of this corporation.

2. The corporation is organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, literary, or educational purposes within the meaning of §501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

3. In the event of dissolution or final liquidation of the corporation, the board of trustees shall, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all the lawful debts and liabilities of the corporation, distribute all the assets of the corporation to one or more of the following categories of recipients as the board of trustees of the corporation shall determine:

(a) a nonprofit organization or organization which may have been created to succeed the corporation, as long as such organization or each of such organizations shall then qualify as a governmental unit under §170(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or as an organization exempt from federal income taxation under §501(a) of such Code as an organization described in §501(c)(3) of such Code; and / or

(b) a nonprofit organization or organizations having similar aims and objects as the corporation and which may be selected as an appropriate recipient of such assets, as long as such organization or each of such organizations shall then qualify as a governmental unit under §170(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or as an organization exempt from federal income taxation under §501(a) of such Code as an organization described in §501(c)(3) of such Code.

ARTICLE XV
SELF-DEALING

Any other provision hereof to the contrary notwithstanding:

1. The corporate income for each taxable year must be distributed at such time and in such manner as not to subject the corporation to tax under Internal Revenue Code §4942 as it now exists or as it may hereafter be amended.

2. The corporation is prohibited from engaging in any act of self-dealing (as defined in said Internal Revenue Code §4941(d)), from retaining any excess business holdings (as defined in said Internal Revenue Code §4941(c)), from making any investments in such manner as to subject the corporation to tax under said Internal Revenue Code §4944, and from making any taxable expenditures (as defined in said Internal Revenue Code §4945 (d)).

ARTICLE XVI
DEDICATION OF ASSETS

The property of this corporation is irrevocably dedicated to religious, charitable, literary and educational purposes and no part of the net income or assets of this corporation shall ever inure to the benefit of any trustee or officer thereof or to the benefit of any private individual, except for reasonable compensation for services actually rendered.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we, the undersigned, being the incorporators hereinbefore named, for the purpose of forming a corporation to do business both within and without the State of Florida, under the laws of Florida, make and file these Articles of Incorporation, hereby declaring and certifying that the facts herein stated are true, and hereunto set our hands and seals this 11th day of May, 2005.
