TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

ARTICLE I NAME

The name of the corporation shall be:

Creative Concepts in Engineering, Inc.

ARTICLE II PRINCIPAL OFFICE

The principal place of business and mailing address of this corporation shall be:

1696 Peruvian Lane
Winter Park, FL 32792-2447

ARTICLE III PURPOSE

The purpose for which the corporation is organized is:

This corporation is composed mostly of engineering students attending the University of Central Florida, and others with diverse academic backgrounds. Our mission is to function effectively as multi-disciplinary teams to design, create, and construct, components, devices, and systems that will successfully achieve a desired result of a solution to a problem or challenge. Our team is dedicated to achieving national recognition in demonstrating engineering problem solving abilities by applying engineering fundamentals and the ability to use the techniques, skills, and tools of modern engineering in areas such as engineering theory, design, experimentation, application, critical thinking, problem solving, and communication. Basically, we are a group of UCF students that will be competing against other universities in various areas of engineering design and construction.

Said organization is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

No part of the net earnings of the organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the organization shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the purpose clause hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the organization shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the organization shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distributions of statements) and political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this document, the organization shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by an organization exempt from Federal income tax under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future tax code, or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170 (c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Upon the dissolution of the organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future Federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization of organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
