ARTICLE III: DURATION

The term of existence of the corporation is perpetual, and the corporate existence will commence on the filing of these articles by the Department of State.

ARTICLE IV: PURPOSE

The corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, scientific, literary, and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and regulations as they now exist or the corresponding provision of any future federal tax code.

Additionally, any income from any activities for which the corporation is organized will be used exclusively for charitable, religious, scientific, literary, or educational purposes either directly or by contributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and Regulations as they now exist or any corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not conduct or carry on any activities not permitted to be conducted or carried on by an organization exempt from taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and Regulations as they now exist or any corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

ARTICLE V: DISSOLUTION

Upon dissolution, any corporate assets remaining after the payment or discharge of all corporate liabilities, the return, transfer, or conveyances of assets held on conditions requiring the same, and the transfer or conveyance of assets received and held subject to limitations permitting their use only for charitable, religious, educational, or scientific or other similar purposes shall be distributed to one or more organizations qualifying as exempt from taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, as the Board of Directors shall direct.

ARTICLE VI: BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The name of each member of the initial Board of Directors of the corporation is:
