ARTICLE I CORPORATE NAME

- 1.1 The name of the corporation is Hope In Action, Inc.

ARTICLE II DURATION

- 2.1 The period of duration of this corporation is perpetual.

ARTICLE III PURPOSES

3.1 The corporation is organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes, and not for profit, including:

- (a) To act and operate exclusively as a nonprofit corporation pursuant to the laws of the State of Florida, and to act and operate as a charitable organization in lessening the burdens of government, providing relief of the poor, the hungry, the homeless, and distressed by educational training program, self-help program, providing financial support and providing food and clothing to the aforesaid.
- (b) To engage in any and all activities and pursuits, and to support or assist such other organizations, as may be reasonably related to the foregoing and following purposes.
- (c) To engage in any and all other lawful purposes, activities and pursuits, which are substantially similar to the foregoing and which are or may hereafter be authorized by Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and are consistent with those powers described in the Florida Nonprofit Corporation and Corporation Association Act, as amended and supplemented.

- (d) To solicit and receive contributions, purchase, own and sell real and personal property, to make contracts, to invest corporate funds, to spend corporate funds for corporate purposes, and to engage in any activity "in furtherance of, incidental to, or connected with any of the other purposes."

3.2 The corporation shall have the power to conduct activities and engage in transactions incidental to the accomplishment of the above purposes, including the power to accept contributions, subject to the following limitations:

- (a) No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, directors, officers or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered to the corporation and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth above;
- (b) No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office except as authorized under the most current Internal Revenue Code;
- (c) Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (1) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law); or (2) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of said Internal Revenue Code.

3.3 If the corporation is ever classified by the Internal Revenue Service as a Private Foundation, the following provisions will prevail:

- (a) The corporation shall distribute its income for each tax year at such time and in such manner as not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by Section 4942.

- (b) The corporation shall not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941(d).
- (c) The corporation shall not retain any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943(c).
- (d) The corporation shall not make any investments in such manner as to subject it to tax under Section 4944.
- (e) The corporation shall not make any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4949(d).
