ARTICLE VIII INDEMNIFICATION

A Director of this corporation shall not be personally liable to the corporation or its members for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a Director, except for the liability (a) for a breach of the Director's duty of loyalty to the company or its members, (b) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or knowing violation of law, (c) for a transaction from which the Director derived an improper personal benefit, or (d) under Section 608.4363(7), FS (or any similar provision of any subsequent law enacted in Florida).

Each individual who is or was a Director of the corporation (and the heirs, executor, personal representatives, administrators, successors or assigns of such individual) who was or is made a party to, or is involved in any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, investigative, by reason of the fact that such person is or was a Director of the company ("indemnitee"), shall be indemnified and held harmless by the corporation to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended. In addition to the indemnification conferred in this Article, the Indemnitee shall also be entitled to have directly by the corporation the expenses reasonably incurred in defending any such proceeding against such Indemnitee in advance of its final disposition, to the fullest extent authorized by applicable law, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended. The corporation may, by action of the Executive Committee, provide indemnification to such of the officers, employees and agents of the company to such extent and to such effect as the Executive Committee shall determine to be appropriate and authorize by applicable law. The rights and authority conferred in this Article shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, provision of the Articles of Incorporation or Regulations of the corporation, agreement, vote of members or otherwise. Any repeal or amendment of this Article by the members of the corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a Director or officer existing at the time of such repeal or amendment.

ARTICLE IX DISSOLUTION

In the event of dissolution, the residual assets of the organization will be turned over to one or more organizations which themselves are exempt as organizations described in sections 501 (c) (3) and 170 (c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or corresponding sections of any prior or future Internal Revenue Code, or to the Federal, State or local government for exclusive public purposes.
