ARTICLE III – PURPOSE

The Corporation is a not for profit corporation. The purposes for which the Corporation is organized are:

- (a) A non-denominational organization to teach and minister to pastors, church leaders and laymen, locally, nationally and internationally, through evangelism, biblical philosophy and principals of the New Testament, and for other charitable purposes.
- (b) To provide individuals, regardless of socio-economic background, physical, mental and spiritual training for their personal development. The balance provided would allow the individual to perform at peak efficiency and reach their maximum potential. This self-actualization would occur through training in the Olympic sport of Tae Kwon Do and non-denominational Christian fellowship.
- (c) To provide the community and citizens at large an organization focused on fostering and bettering the general welfare and safety of the local communities and citizens of Duval County and surrounding Counties.
- (d) To provide an educational school-like setting that would afford inner city individuals and children a safe environment to complete their educational studies, martial arts training and theological training as deemed appropriate.

The date of adoption of the amendment(s) was: August 3, 2006

Effective date if applicable: _____
