Attn: Brian K. Goodkind

ARTICLE 5. - PURPOSES AND POWERS

A. This Corporation is organized and shall be operated for the purposes permitted within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). To the extent permitted by Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, the purpose of the Corporation is to provide assistance to the victims of Hurricane Katrina that local, federal and state governments are unable to provide. Assistance will be provided to those victims of Hurricane Katrina who have been displaced and are in need of shelter, food and other assistance. The Corporation will provide assistance without regard to race, color, religion or gender. Assistance will be provided through a committee following procedures and guidelines to be established to assure that assistance is provided only to those that are qualified to accept assistance under the Code.

B. This Corporation shall have all of the powers of a natural person, subject only to limitations imposed by these Articles, the Bylaws of this Corporation and applicable laws. Notwithstanding any such powers, or any other provision of these Articles, this Corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on (i) by a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or (ii) by a corporation as defined in Section 617.0835, Florida Statutes.

C. This Corporation shall have and exercise all rights and powers conferred on non-profit corporations under the laws of the State of Florida, or which may hereafter be conferred, in order to promote social welfare, religious, charitable, scientific, educational, sports, athletic and recreational purposes.

Notwithstanding any of the above statements of purpose and powers, this Corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the primary purposes of this Corporation.

No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its directors, Director, officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the tax exempt purposes set forth herein.

ARTICLE 6. - MEMBERSHIP

Membership in the Corporation shall be open to anyone that shares in these goals, under criteria to be established in the Bylaws. Payments of fees by Members shall be determined in the Bylaws. The authorized number, the different classes of Membership, obligations, rights and privileges of Members and the termination of Membership shall be as set forth in the Bylaws.

ARTICLE 7. - MANAGEMENT OF CORPORATE AFFAIRS

The powers of this Corporation shall be exercised, its properties controlled, and its affairs conducted by a Board of Directors. The terms and election of Board of Director members and their duties and powers shall be as set forth in the Bylaws. The initial members of the Board of Directors and the election of members thereafter, shall be as provided in the Bylaws. The number of Members of the Executive Committee may be increased or decreased from time to time as the Board of Directors may determine, however the number of Directors shall not be less than three.

ARTICLE 8. - DISSOLUTION

This Corporation shall be dissolved and its affairs concluded by two-thirds vote of the Board of Directors. No part of said property or assets shall ever inure to the benefit of any member, Director or Officer or to the benefit of any private individual or entity. Upon dissolution, winding up or abandonment of the Corporation provision for payment of all debts and liabilities of this Corporation shall be made to the extent assets available. If after payment of all such debts and liabilities there remains any Corporate assets, such assets shall be distributed for use in furtherance of the purposes of the Corporation as set forth or then such assets shall be distributed to (i) an organization being operated for purposes that are similar to the Corporation's; provided that such organization is qualified as an exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3); or, (ii) if a suitable organization qualified under Section 501(c)(3) cannot be located, then such assets shall be distributed to any organization being operated for religious, charitable, educational, sports, athletic and recreational purposes; provided that such organization is qualified as an exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3). Any such assets not so disposed shall be disposed of by the Circuit Court of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine.

ARTICLE 9. - INITIAL REGISTERED OFFICE AND AGENT

The initial registered office of this Corporation shall be 13030 Zambrana Street, Coral Gables, FL 33156 and the initial registered agent of this Corporation at such office shall be Attn: Brian K. Goodkind, who upon accepting this designation agrees to comply with the provisions of Section 48.091, Florida Statutes, as amended from time to time, with respect to keeping an office open for service of process.
