ARTICLE III PURPOSE

This corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, literary, and educational purposes as follows:

1. To further the art of theatre by providing touring theatrical productions to schools, theatres, libraries, museums, festivals, & communities throughout the United States including rural and underserved areas.
2. To develop original scripts and adaptations derived from history, legend, & classic children's literature which reinforce creativity and the empowerment of children to see the world beyond their doorstep.
3. To produce full theatrical productions performed by professional actor/educators who have demonstrated a love for the arts and a commitment to theatre for young audiences and families.
4. To provide educational programs which enhance the audience experience and allow children to view theatre from the actor's perspective.

This organization shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from Federal and state income tax under section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law.

No proceeds of the corporation will enrich any individual, except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services to the corporation.

If the corporation is dissolved, any assets remaining will be distributed to another corporation serving a similar purpose and qualifying as a tax-exempt charitable organization under the provisions of 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.
