ARTICLE 10

Except as otherwise provided by law, a volunteer director of the corporation is not personally liable to the corporation or it's members for monetary damages for a breach of the officer's fiduciary duty. The corporation assumes all liability to any person other than the corporation or its members for all acts or omissions of a volunteer director incurred in good faith performance of their duty as an officer occurring on or after the date of incorporation

ARTICLE 11

The bylaws of The Christian Charity Outreach Organization are the final authority in matters of conflict between documents, except when a provision of proposal to change a provision in the bylaws would countermand the legal restrictions of a nonprofit tax exempt corporation. For such a provision or change in a provision to be the final authority, the membership must specifically vote to adopt or revoke the provision in question at a meeting as specified in the bylaws.

1. Sole authority to resolve conflict beyond documents and board rulings shall remain with the president founder of the organization
2. Discretion to form outside collaborating partnerships rests with the president founder and can be voted on by the board of directors.
