ARTICLE III

PURPOSE

The Corporation is organized to operate exclusively for charitable, scientific, literary and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (hereinafter referred to as the "Code"). Further, the purposes for which the Corporation is organized include, but are not limited to: cultural development of communities; promotion of understanding and communication between the arts and the community; organizing and conducting volunteer programs and community service projects; and providing material, resources, services and information to support the purpose for which this corporation exists.

ARTICLE IV

POWERS

4.1 The Corporation shall possess and exercise all the powers and privileges granted by Chapters 607 and 617 of the Florida Statutes as they now exist or as they may be hereafter amended, or by any other law of Florida applicable in any manner to not for profit corporations, limited only by the restrictions set forth in these Articles of Incorporation and in said Chapters 607 and 617 of the Florida Statutes.

4.2 The Corporation is organized not for profit and no part of the income of said Corporation shall ever be distributed to or inure to the benefit of any member, trustee or officer; provided, however, that compensation in reasonable amounts may be paid for services rendered, that benefits may be conferred and that distributions may be made in accordance with Section 617.011(1) of the Florida Statutes as it now exists or as it may be hereafter amended.

4.3 Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not conduct or carry on activities not permitted to be conducted or carried on (i) by an organization exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code and the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder as they now exist or as they may be hereafter amended, or (ii) by a not for profit corporation organized under the laws of the State of Florida as they now exist or as they may be hereafter amended.

ARTICLE V

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

All corporate powers shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the affairs of the Corporation shall be managed under the direction of, a Board of Trustees, except as may be otherwise provided in these Articles of Incorporation or in the Bylaws of the Corporation, or as may be otherwise required by any of the provisions of Chapters 607 or 617 of the Florida Statutes as they now exist or as they may be hereafter amended.
