AMENDED AND RESTATED
ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF
HOPE COMMUNITY CENTER, INC.

The undersigned, does hereby make, swear to, adopt and file these Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation of Hope Community Center, Inc., pursuant to the requirements of the provisions of Chapter 617 of the laws of the State of Florida, does hereby adopt the following Amended And Restated Articles of Incorporation, and does hereby agree and certify that the Members held a Special Meeting on February 19, 2008, affirmatively voted to amend and restate the Articles of Incorporation, in the manner hereinafter set forth, as specified in the Corporation's Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws and the Florida Statutes, as applicable, and the number of votes cast by the Members for such amendment and restatement was sufficient for approval.

ARTICLE I
Name

The name of this corporation shall be Hope Community Center, Inc. and its principal place of business shall be located at 815 South Park Avenue, Apopka, Florida 32703.

ARTICLE II
Term

This corporation shall commence corporate existence upon the date of filing of these articles of incorporation by the incorporator with the Secretary of State and shall have perpetual existence unless sooner dissolved according to law.

ARTICLE III
Mission

The mission of Hope Community Center, Inc., is to strengthen low income and poor individuals and families through faith, advocacy, education, leadership and economic development programs.

ARTICLE III
Purpose

The purposes for which this Corporation is organized are exclusively charitable, religious, literary, scientific and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the "Code"), not for pecuniary profit, including the performance of the following activities exclusively for such purpose, except as restricted by Article X herein:

(a) To be present and to provide services to the Central Florida farm worker, immigrant, and low-income workers, youth, and their families through holistic programs which strengthen and empower the participants to develop:

- Leadership Skills

- Academic Skills
- Economic Well-being
- Healthy Families
- Communities of Faith in Action

(b) To foster community-wide interest and concern for the issues of this low-income, immigrant and farm worker community so that educational and economic opportunities may be expanded, poverty and discrimination may be lessened and pastoral and faith-based culturally appropriate outreach may be offered.

(c) To insure that all receiving service at the organization are treated in a respectful, compassionate, and dignified manner which enables them to be empowered to act on their own behalf, that of their families, and the communities to which they belong. In addition, those served will be active participants in the planning and execution of the programs offered through the organization.

(d) To exercise all powers conferred on a corporation organized under the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act as currently in effect and as it may be amended, and all such other powers as are permitted by applicable law.

ARTICLE IV

Members

The qualification for members and the manner of their admission and expulsion shall be as regulated by the Bylaws. This corporation is organized upon a nonstock basis and shall not issue shares of stock.

ARTICLE V

Registered Office and Registered Agent

The street address of the registered office of this corporation is 815 S. Park Avenue, Apopka, Florida 32703 and the name of the initial registered agent of this corporation is:

Sister Catherine M. Gorman, SNDdeN
815 S. Park Ave.
Apopka, FL 32703

ARTICLE VI

Board of Directors

The Board of Directors of the corporation shall consist of not less than three (3) nor more than fifteen (15) Directors. The manner in which the Directors are to be elected or appointed and the number of Directors of the Corporation shall be specified, from time to time, by the Bylaws, provided, however, that the number of Directors shall never be less than three (3).

ARTICLE VII
Incorporator

The power to adopt, alter, amend or repeal bylaws shall be vested in the Member.

ARTICLE IX
Amendment

This Corporation through its Member reserves the right to amend or repeal any provisions contained in these articles of incorporation, or any amendment hereto, and any right conferred upon the members is subject to this reservation.

ARTICLE X
Restrictions and Interpretation

Section 1. No part of the net earning of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributed to, its members, directors, officers or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article III hereof.

Section 2. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

Section 3. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) (the "Code") or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170 (c) (2) of the Code.

Section 4. It is intended by the provisions of these Articles of Incorporation that the corporation shall possess the status of an organization exempt from federal income taxation under the provisions of Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 as now in force or hereafter amended. Accordingly, no part of the affairs of the corporation shall be administered, directly or indirectly, in any manner whatsoever which might jeopardize the tax-exempt status of the corporation.

ARTICLE XI
Dissolution

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the corporation exclusively for one or more of the purposes of the corporation which may include distribution to an organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for one or more of such purposes, preferably to the Roman Catholic Diocese of Orlando or shall distribute all of the assets of the corporation to the federal government, or to a state or local government for public purposes. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Circuit Court of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for one or more of the purposes of the Corporation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned as President of the Corporation with the authority of the Board of Directors has hereto set her hand and seal this 5th day of March, 2008, for the purposes of amending the Articles of Incorporation of this corporation not for profit under the laws of the State of Florida.
