 - B. To establish and maintain an association that will spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ both in the United States and abroad.
 - C. To print, publish, distribute and sell books, magazines and literature in connection with the purposes of this ministry. To record, reproduce, and sell cds, tapes, radio and television programs in connection with the purposes of this ministry.
 - D. To conduct pre-marital and marital counseling, Christian retreats, tours, seminars and camps.
 - E. To aid Christian organizations and churches in the promotion of proper nutrition.
 - F. To carry on any business whatsoever that this corporation may deem proper or convenient in connection with any of the foregoing purposes and exercise all powers conferred by the laws of the State of Florida on corporations formed under the laws pursuant to which and under which this corporation is formed.
- Nothing contained here in shall be construed as giving the corporation any rights, powers or privileges not permitted to it by law.

Article 4

The affairs of the corporation shall be managed by officers elected by the Board of Directors at it's annual meeting. The officers shall serve until the next annual meeting of the Board of Directors, unless removed earlier in accordance with the Bylaws.

The general officers of the corporation shall be the President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer.

The principal duties of the President shall be to preside at all meetings of the members of the Board of Directors and be the overall supervisor of the association. He shall be the chairman of the Board of directors.

The principle duties of the Vice-President shall be to discharge the duties of the President in the event of the absence or disability, for any cause whatsoever, of the President.

The principle duties of the secretary shall be to countersign all deeds, leases, and conveyances executed by the corporation, affix the seal thereto and to such other papers as shall be required or directed to be sealed, and to keep a record of the proceedings of the Board of Directors, and to safely and systematically keep all books, papers, records, and documents belonging to the corporation except the books that are the responsibility of the Treasurer

The principle duties of the treasurer shall be to keep an account of all monies, credits and property of any and every nature of the corporation which shall come into his hand, and to keep an accurate account of all monies received and disbursed and of proper vouchers for monies disbursed and to render such accounts, statements and inventories of monies received and disbursed and of money and property on hand and generally of all matters pertaining to his office, as shall be required by the Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors may provide for the appointment of such additional officers as they may deem for the best interest of the corporation.

Whenever the Board of Directors may so order, any two officers, the duties of which do not conflict, may be held by one person.

The officers shall perform such additional or different duties as shall from time to time be imposed or required by the Board of Directors, or as may be prescribed from time to time by the Bylaws.

Renald Neely, Founder of this corporation, shall remain President indefinitely, or until such time as he would desire to resign as President, at which time he shall have the privilege of appointing the next President of the corporation.

The Bylaws of Eating Natural Living Right, INC. shall be adopted and amended by the Board of directors.

The property of this corporation is irrevocably dedicated to religious and charitable purposes, and no part of the net income and assets of this corporation shall ever benefit any director, officer, or member thereof, or benefit any private individual.

Amendments to this Article of incorporation, may be proposed by a resolution adopted by the Board of Directors. Such amendment shall be adopted by the Board of Directors by an affirmative vote or at least two thirds of the Directors present and voting at a meeting at which a quorum is present.
