Special provisions authorized or permitted by statute to be contained in the Articles or Incorporation, are shown as follows:

ARTICLE VIII

This corporation is organized pursuant to the provisions of the Florida non-profit corporation code. All trustees of this corporation now in good and regular standing, and such other members as the board of trustees shall from time to time admit to membership, shall be members of this corporation.

ARTICLE IX

The business and property of the corporation shall be managed by a board a minimum of three directors (trustees). The founders/trustees now duly constituted and elected shall constitute the board of trustees and they shall hold their offices permanently and so far as may be until other or further election. In the event of the inability of any trustee to act, or in the event of the death of any trustee, the remaining trustees shall elect another trustee, or trustees, to fill the vacancy or vacancies, thus created. Each trustee shall be a member in good standing of the corporation. A new trustee shall be elected by a majority vote of the total trustees, excluding the trustee whose position is being filled by vote.

1. The trustees in their collective capacity shall be known as the board of trustees and under that name shall constitute the governing body, and shall conduct and transact all business of the corporation.
2. The trustees shall have power and authority to hold an annual meeting of the board of trustees and may likewise hold special meetings as may be determined by the board of trustees. The annual meeting, if and when held, shall be held at the offices of the corporation in Arcadia, Florida in February in each year or as soon thereafter in each year as is possible for the trustees to call such meeting; and any special meetings may be held at such time as the trustees may determine, and all meetings shall be held at the offices of the corporation in Arcadia, Florida.
3. The board of trustees shall have and is hereby given power and authority to provide for the qualifications and requirements for membership which without doctrinal provisions or terminology shall primarily require a belief in the Christian religion and in the salvation of men by grace through faith in the shed blood of Jesus Christ as the only atonement made for sin, and in the Trinity of the Godhead and the church as one spiritual body made up of all true believers and shall provide the means and manner of admission of membership, which admission shall be free of charge therefore, and shall likewise provide means for suspension from its membership.
4. The board of trustees shall have authority and power, which is hereby given, to provide suitable and proper means and religious ceremony and required tests and qualifications for entrance into the ministry of the church, hereby being established and organized and by and through the means as established and administered that any and all applicants may be inducted into the ministry thereby license, commission or full ordination with all church authority possible for any church or ecclesiastical bodies and to include all sacred and sacramental services, and to further include the marriage services and together with the sacred services of baptism.
5. The board of trustees shall have the authority and power, which is hereby given, to establish, institute, operate and maintain any and all such additional departments, associations, institutions, schools, mission stations, programs, and/or any and all such other vehicles as may be deemed appropriate and advisable by said board of trustees for the propagation of the Gospel and Christian and religious worship and where within the United States of America and/or in any other country.
6. The board of trustees of RECOVERY FELLOWSHIP CHAPEL, INCORPORATED shall have power and authority which is hereby given, to negotiate or designate agents to negotiate all of the business transactions, all receipts and all disbursements, for any such additional departments, associations, institutions, schools, mission stations, programs, and/or any and all such other vehicles established or instituted by this corporation.
7. A majority of the trustees shall constitute a quorum for the transaction by the board of trustees of any and all business, in accordance with the laws of the state of Florida.

ARTICLE X

The manner in which the directors or trustees of the corporation shall be elected or appointed shall be governed by the provisions of the by-laws of the corporation.

The corporation shall be a sovereign body, and the regulation of the internal affairs of the corporation shall be governed by the provisions of the by-laws of the corporation. The place where the business of RECOVERY FELLOWSHIP CHAPEL, INCORPORATED shall be transacted is: Arcadia, Florida where said principal office shall be.

This action was taken by unanimous written consent of all officers (Board of Trustees) of the Corporation in accordance with the appropriate statutes of the State of Florida requiring no notice and received the vote of a majority of the officers (Board of Trustees) in office, there being no members having voting rights in respect thereof.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we the undersigned officers (Board of Trustees) have hereunto set our hands in Arcadia, Florida, on this day of OCT. 31, 2005.
