ARTICLE II PURPOSES

The organization is constituted as a Christian Church and is organized for all lawful purposes allowed for church corporations including but not limited to the following:

- To provide opportunities for regular public services for worship and Christian fellowship for members and those seeking membership into this Church, the Body of Christ, The Church corporate, who wish to gather together in the name of Jesus Christ under the direction of this corporation; or otherwise including but not limited to the following:
- To communicate the Christian gospel, as put forth in the Old and New Testament Scriptures of the Bible, by means of publications, advertising, correspondence, and correspondence courses, cassette audio tapes and discs, radio and television programs, closed circuit television productions, films, drama, and by any other means or media that may from time to time be decided.
- To promote Christian discipleship, fellowship, love, education, and Christian living to individuals and groups through personal teaching, preaching, spiritual counseling, music and other materials, or media.
- To organize and send individuals and teams of Christian missionary workers for the purposes of evangelism, Christian education, establishing churches, and discipleship training for the benefit of communities and the Christian Church at large.
- To organize, set up, and carry on missions, groups, meetings, seminars, conferences, forums, exhibitions, courses, talks, and functions and activities for the propagation of the Christian religion.

- To license and ordain ministers, after their qualification according to the requirements duly set forth in the by-laws of this corporation.
 - To provide Christian schools for instruction and training for both children and adults.
 - To promote and organize conferences, conventions and seminars for leaders of this Church and of the Christian Church at large.
 - To sponsor and organize recreational activities of whatsoever nature Christian and secular for the purposes of promoting the mental and physical health of the community, and as an evangelistic outreach.
 - To establish and operate Christian spiritual regeneration programs and aftercare programs ministering recovery through Spiritual regeneration to those who are chemically or substance addicted and those who are otherwise dysfunctional by virtue of the absence of a relationship with God, themselves, and significant others.
 - To subscribe and promote the aims of any non-profit society or association having similar purposes to all or any of the purposes of the Corporation.
 - To accept donations, endorsements, pledges, loans, and to receive property by devise or bequest for all or any of the proposed purposes herein provided.
 - To print and publish any publication, newspaper, periodical, book or leaflet for the promotion and advancement of the purposes of the Corporation and to promote, advertise, and generally make known the purposes and activities of the Corporation.
 - To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of any or all of the above purposes including the acquisition and ownership of real or personal property

ARTICLE III QUALIFICATION OF MEMBERS

The qualifications of members of the Corporation, the authorized number, and manner of admission of members to this Corporation, the different classes of membership, if any, the privileges of members, the liability of members and/or dues or assessments, and the method of collection thereof and the termination and transfer to membership, shall be as set forth in the by-laws of this Corporation.
