ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF ISAA, INC.

The undersigned, being of legal age and competent to contract, for the purpose of organizing a not for profit corporation pursuant to the laws of the State of Florida, hereby adopts the following Articles of Incorporation, and hereby agrees and certifies as follows:

ARTICLE I NAME

The name of the Corporation shall be the ISAA, INC., whose principal office and mailing address shall be located at P.O. Box 398, Deland, Florida 32720.

ARTICLE II
COMMENCEMENT OF CORPORATE EXISTENCE

This Corporation shall commence corporate existence on December 13, 2005, or, if later, on such date as is five (5) business days prior to the date these Articles are filed with the Florida Secretary of State. The Corporation shall have perpetual existence unless sooner dissolved according to law.

ARTICLE III
PURPOSES

(a) This Corporation is created to devote and apply its funds in accordance with the rules set forth under the provisions of Section 501(c)(7) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended or replaced from time to time (the "Code") and its regulations as they now exist or may hereafter be amended, and the property, assets, profits and net income of this Corporation are irrevocably dedicated to such purpose.

(b) The specific purposes of this Corporation shall be to:

i. Foster the camaraderie and sportsmanship of Shrimping and Angling upon and under Florida's waters;

ii. to set high standards of good practice for Shrimping and Angling;

iii. to promote greater unity among the members of the association and the sharing of ideas and information.

ARTICLE IV
GENERAL POWERS

This Corporation shall have all of the powers enumerated for corporations in the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act, as it now exists and as hereafter amended, and all such other powers as are permitted by applicable law, including, without limitation and only by illustration, the following powers unless later restricted by applicable law:

(a) To have succession by its corporate name for the duration of its existence.

(b) To sue and be sued and appear and defend in all actions and proceedings in its corporate name to the same extent as a natural person.

(c) To have a corporate seal, which may be altered at pleasure, and to use the same by causing it, or a facsimile thereof, to be impressed, affixed, or in any other manner reproduced provided; however, such seal shall always contain the words "corporation not for profit."

(d) To purchase, take, receive, lease, take by gift, devise or bequest or otherwise acquire, own, hold, improve, use, and otherwise deal in and with real or personal property or any interest therein, wherever situated.

(e) To sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, create security interests in, lease, exchange, transfer, and otherwise dispose of all or any part of its property and assets.

(f) To lend money for its corporate purposes, invest and reinvest its funds, and take and hold real and personal property as security for the payment of funds so loaned or invested.

(g) To make donations for the public welfare or for religious, charitable, scientific, educational, or other similar purposes.

(h) To increase, by a vote of its members cast as the bylaws may direct, the number of its directors, so that the number shall not be less than three but may be any number in excess thereof.

(i) To purchase, take, receive, subscribe for, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, vote, use, employ, sell, mortgage, lend, pledge, or otherwise dispose of, and otherwise sell and deal in and with, shares or other interests in, or obligations of, other domestic or foreign corporations, whether for profit or not for profit associations, partnerships or individuals, or direct or indirect obligations of the United States or of any other government, state, territory, governmental district, or municipality or of any instrumentality thereof.

(j) To make contracts and guarantees and incur liabilities, borrow money at such rates of interest as it may determine, issue its notes, bonds, and other obligations, and secure any of its obligations by mortgage or pledge of all or any of its property, franchises, and income.

(k) To conduct its affairs, carry on its operations, and have offices and exercise the powers granted by the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act in any state, territory, district, or possession of the United States or any foreign country.

(l) To elect or appoint officers and agents and define their duties and allow them reasonable compensation subject to approval by the Board of Directors.

(m) To adopt, change, amend and repeal bylaws, not inconsistent with these Articles of Incorporation or with the laws of the State of Florida, for the administration and regulation of its affairs and the exercise of its powers.

(n) To have and exercise all powers necessary or convenient to effect its purpose.

(o) To merge and consolidate with other corporations both for profit and not for profit, domestic and foreign, provided that the surviving corporation is a corporation not for profit.

ARTICLE V
PROHIBITED ACTIVITIES

The Corporation shall not allow any expenditure of any part of the net earnings of the Corporation to inure to the benefit of any member, director or officer of the Corporation, (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the Corporation effecting one or more of its purposes), nor shall a substantial part of the activities of the Corporation be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate or intervene (including the publication and distribution of statements) in the political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

ARTICLE VI
DISTRIBUTION UPON DISSOLUTION

Upon the dissolution and the winding up of the affairs, the Corporation, after paying or making adequate provision for paying all the account payables and other debts and liabilities of the Corporation, shall distribute the remaining assets of the Corporation in accordance with the provisions of the Corporation's Bylaws.

ARTICLE VII
