and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

(C) Upon the winding up and dissolution of the corporation, after paying or adequately providing for the debts and obligations of the corporation, the remaining assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purpose within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such asset not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purpose or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for purposes.

Upon the winding up and dissolution of the corporation, *after paying or adequately providing for the debt and obligations of the corporation, the remaining assets shall be distributed to (insert name or names). However, if the named recipient is not then in existence, or is no longer exempt from Federal income tax, or is unwilling or unable to accept the distributions, then the asset shall be distributed to an organization which has established its tax exempt status under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code to be selected by the Board of Directors.

The date of adoption of the amendment(s) was: February 13, 2006

Effective date if applicable: February 14, 2006
(no more than 90 days after amendment file date)
