ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF AMERICANS SUPPORT OUR TROOPS ASSOCIATION, INC.
A NOT- FOR- PROFIT CORPORATION

ARTICLE I – NAME

The name of this not-for-profit corporation is Americans Support Our Troops Association, Inc., (hereinafter referred to as ASOTA).

ARTICLE II –EFFECTIVE DATE AND DURATION

The corporate existence will begin upon filing. The term of existence of ASOTA shall be perpetual.

ARTICLE III – REASON FOR CREATION

Whereas, freedom of association, "the right of the people to peaceably assemble," one of the most important rights we reserved to ourselves by the Bill of Rights, has led to greater public charity and good in America than a congress could ever legislate, and this freedom enables us to gather together to pursue personal interests or promote the general welfare and common good; and

Whereas, in order to create a concrete statement of thanks to America's troops for their service civilians stepped forward and founded the national nonprofit Support Our Troops, Inc., a Florida not-for-profit ("SOT"), to permanently bolster America's troops and the families of troops who are killed or substantially injured protecting America after September 11, 2001; and

Whereas, SOT is dedicated to assisting our troops and their families on the home front and providing means through which everyone can publicly display support for their troops and their families;

Therefore, SOT has for the common good organized and sponsored ASOTA which functions under the auspices and control of SOT and provides a vehicle through which people can assemble and facilitate public displays of support for America's troops, exchange information about supporting their troops and if they wish assist SOT in raising money for the troops and their families;

ARTICLE IV - PURPOSE

The broadly stated purposes of ASOTA are to facilitate public displays of support for America's troops and to raise money to bolster the troops and the families of troops killed or substantially injured protecting America after September 11, 2001, and ASOTA is established to facilitate those ends. ASOTA is a nonprofit corporation and is organized exclusively for charitable purposes, including: making distributions to SOT; generally soliciting or receiving contributions from the public; publicizing support for America's troops and promoting a clear demonstration by Americans of their support of their troops; providing diverse means by which the public can publicly display their support for and pride in our troops while at the same time raising funds for SOT to financially assist the troops and their families who are sacrificing to protect all of us; disseminating communications which facilitate the purposes set forth herein; doing all such things as are incidental and/or conducive to the attainment of its charitable objectives, except as limited herein or in the Bylaws.

ARTICLE V - NOTICE

It is the express intent of ASOTA not to incur any expense associated with delivery of physical notices to members. Notice for all purposes may be communicated in any electronic form, including without limitation, automated telephone dialers, email, or posting on ASOTA's website or electronic network. Acceptance of membership constitutes irrevocable acceptance by a member to receive any notices by electronic transmission both during and after membership. The Board of Directors may elect, in its own discretion, to give written notice by different or additional means for notices required to the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE VI - ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The Board recognizes that ASOTA, the charitable purposes and business concept behind it, were the ideas of Martin C. Boire. Without him ASOTA would not have come into existence and without him what comes of it would not be. As Founder, he is the man principally undertaking the creation and organization of all aspects of the building of this charitable enterprise, and the primary thought and labor in its creation and the launching of its enterprises and structures will in large part come from him and be driven by his thoughts, labor and ingenuity.

ARTICLE VII - MEMBERSHIP

ASOTA has three membership classes:

Class A – The Parent Corporation. SOT, TIN33-1112829, is irrevocably the sole Class A member for the duration of ASOTA. The Class A Member exclusively, irrevocably and forever holds all voting rights, notice rights, and power. The Class A Members will solely elect the Board of Directors.

Class B – The Individual Members. Generally, Class B Members are individual persons. Class B Members have no voting power, are not entitled to notice on any corporation matters, have no right to inspect corporate records, and are not entitled to attend any meetings. An individual, corporation, club, or association may join as a Class B Member only as provided in the Bylaws. The Board of Directors of ASOTA may set the qualifications for Class B Members and may elect, in its sole and absolute discretion, to grant Class B Members specific rights, only by amending the Bylaws as provided herein.

Class C – The State Chapters. Generally, Class C Members are limited to incorporated or unincorporated associations ("Chapters") organized within a state or geographic area. Class C Members have no voting power, are not entitled to notice on any corporation matters, have no right to inspect corporate records, and are not entitled to attend any meetings. A Chapter may join ASOTA as a Class C Member only as provided in the Bylaws. The Board of Directors of ASOTA may set the qualifications for Class C

Members and may elect, in its sole and absolute discretion, to grant Class C Members specific rights only by amending the Bylaws as provided herein.

Membership in all cases is voluntary, at-will, and meant to be very simple. Membership is not transferable. Membership expressly constitutes acknowledgment of and agreement to all restrictions and requirements in the Bylaws, including with limitation the "Governing Law and Venue" and the "Intellectual Property Matters" provisions thereof.

Participation is voluntary and indefinite and Members may withdraw whenever and for whatever reason they want, and in turn ASOTA may disassociate Members or amend these Articles and the Bylaws without consequences or notice. Members may be disassociated for acts which in the opinion of the Board of Directors are contrary to the objectives or philosophy of ASOTA or SOT or violative of the Bylaws or resolutions of the Board of Directors. Upon disassociation of membership certain of the duties and protections owed to ASOTA or third parties as specified in the Bylaws or resolutions of the Board of Directors will continue in force and effect as specified therein.
