Amending → Article III:

The purpose of the corporation is to act and operate as a church connected with and subordinate to its parent religious organization, The Christian and Missionary Alliance, a Colorado nonprofit corporation, promulgating the doctrines and teachings of The Christian and Missionary Alliance, preaching the Gospel to every creature, edifying the Christians through the education of God's word, promoting spiritual fellowship among God's people on the basis of the biblical faith, and promoting religious activities.

Add Additional → Article IX:

Upon the dissolution of the corporation or upon the corporation's cessation in affiliation, cooperation, or connection with its parent religious organization, The Christian and Missionary Alliance, and being subject to said parent religious organization's purposes, usages, doctrines, and teachings, all of the corporation's assets remaining after payment of or provision for all of its liabilities shall be distributed to and become the property of the incorporated or supervising body of The Christian and Missionary Alliance within whose jurisdiction said corporation is located or with which it is affiliated provided that at such time the incorporated or supervising body to receive any assets of the corporation is itself an exempt organization described in section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended or supplemented. If the incorporated or supervising body is not, at the time of dissolution, an exempt organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or is no longer in existence, all of the corporation's assets remaining after payment of or provision for all of its liabilities shall be paid or transferred to one or more exempt religious organizations that are described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. In such case, the organizations to receive such property shall be designated by the board of directors of the parent religious organization or its successor.
