The initial principal place of business and mailing address of the corporation shall be: 4000 Ponce de Leon Blvd, Ste 470, Coral Gables, FL 33146

ARTICLE III- PURPOSE(S)

The corporation is organized as a corporation not-for-profit under chapter 617 of the laws of the State of Florida. The specific purposes for which the corporation is organized are:

1. To promote the health, safety and business, as well as social welfare of the Owners of Units within that area referred to as 3205 & 3207 MCDONALD ST. CONDOMINIUM (the "Declaration") executed contemporaneously herewith by RAUL OLIVA, Incorporator, a Florida corporation, to be recorded in the Public records of Miami, Dade County, Florida.
2. To own and maintain, repair and replace the general and/or Common Area, landscaping and other improvements in and/or benefiting the Properties for which the obligation to maintain and repair has been delegated and accepted.
3. To control the specifications, architecture, design, appearance, elevation and location of, and landscaping around all buildings and improvements of any type, including walls, fences, antennae, sewers, drains, disposal system or other structures constructed, placed or permitted to remain in the Properties, as well as the alteration, improvement, addition or change thereto.
4. To operate without profit for the benefit of its Members
5. To perform those functions reserved by the Association in the Declaration.

HOLWOOD 32920

5. To perform those functions reserved by the Association in the Declaration.

ARTICLE IV – GENERAL POWERS

The general powers that the Association shall have are as follows:

1. To hold funds solely and exclusively for the benefit of the members for the purposes set forth in these Articles of Incorporation.
2. To promulgate and enforce rules, regulations, bylaws, covenants, restrictions and agreements to effectuate the purposes for which the Association is organized.
3. To delegate power or powers where such is deemed in the interest of the Association.
4. To affix assessments to be levied against Units and the costs of effectuating the objects and purposes of the Association and to create reasonable reserves for such expenditures, and to authorize its Board of Directors, in its discretion, to enter into agreements with management companies and other organizations for the collection of such assessments.
5. To pay taxes and other charges, if any, on or against the Common Areas.
6. To have all powers conferred upon a corporation by the laws of the State of Florida, except as prohibited herein.

No amendment affecting the Developer or its successor or assigns of Developer of the Property shall be effective without the prior written consent of said Director or its successors or assigns, as Developer.

ARTICLE XIV

INDEMNIFICATION OF OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS

1. The Association hereby indemnifies any Director or officer made a party or threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding:
 - a. Whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, other than one by or in the right of the Association to procure a judgment in its favor, brought to impose a liability or penalty on such person for any act alleged to have been committed by such person in his capacity of director or officer of the Association, or in his capacity as a Director, officer, employee or agent of any other corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise which he served at the request of the Association, against judgments, fines, amounts paid in settlement and reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees actually and necessarily incurred as a result of such action, suit or proceeding or any appeal therein, if such person acted in good faith in the reasonable belief that such action was in the best interest of the Association, and in criminal actions or proceedings, without reasonable ground for belief that such action was unlawful. The termination of any such action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not in itself create a presumption that any such Director or officer did not act in good faith in the reasonable belief that such action was in the best interest of the Association or that he had reasonable grounds for belief that such action was unlawful.
 - b. By or in the right of the Association to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of his being or having been a Director or officer of the Association, or by reason of his being or having been a Director, officer employee or agent of any other corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise which he served at the request of the Association, against the reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, actually and necessarily incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action, or in connection with an appeal therein, if such person acted in good faith in the reasonable belief that such action was in the best interest of the Association. Such persona shall not be entitled to indemnification in relation to matters as to which such person has been adjudged to have been guilty of negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duty to the Association unless and only to the extent that the court, administrative agency, or investigative body before which such action, suite or proceeding is held shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification for such expenses which such tribunal shall deem proper.

2. The board of Directors shall determine whether amounts for which a Director or officer seeks indemnification were properly incurred and whether such director or officer acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the Association, and whether with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, he had no reasonable ground for belief that such action was unlawful. Such determination shall be made by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of Directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceedings.

3. The foregoing rights of indemnification shall not be deemed to limit in nay way the powers of the Association to indemnify under applicable law.

ARTICLE XV

TRANSACTIONS IN WHICH DIRECTORS OR OFFICERS ARE INTERESTED

1. With the exception of the initial Directors and Officers who are shareholders principals or employees of the Developer and one or more of its contractors, the financial or famillal interest of an Officer or Director in any contract or transaction between the Association and one(1) of more of its directors or officers, or between the Association and any other corporation, partnership, association or other organization in which one (1) or more of its Directors or offices are directors or officers, or have a financial interest, shall be disclosed in the future and such director shall not be permitted to vote on such matter which shall be decided upon by only disinterested Board members. No Director or Officer of the Association shall incur liability by reason of the fact that he is or may interested in any such contract or transaction.

2. Interested Directors may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the Board of Directors or of a committee which authorized the contract or transaction, but must abstain from voting on the issue.

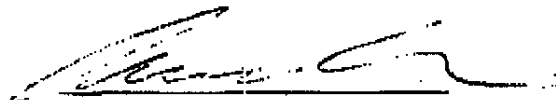

ARTICLE XVI-DISSOLUTION

The operation of the condominium shall be by the association. Dissolution of this corporation shall comply with Florida statute 617.1402. If the corporation has members entitled to vote on a resolution to dissolve, and unless the board of directors determines that because of a conflict of interest or other substantial reason it should not make any recommendation, the board of directors must adopt a resolution recommending that the corporation be dissolved and directing that the question of such dissolution be submitted to a vote at a meeting of members entitled to vote thereon, which may be either an annual or special meeting. Written notice stating that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of such meeting is to consider the advisability of dissolving the corporation must be given to each member entitled to vote at such meeting in accordance with the articles of incorporation or the bylaws. A resolution to dissolve the corporation shall be adopted upon receiving at least a majority of the votes which members present at such meeting or represented by proxy are entitled to cast. If the corporation has no members or if its members are not entitled to vote on a resolution to dissolve, the dissolution of the corporation may be authorized at a meeting of the board of directors by a majority vote of the directors then in office.

When the board of directors intends to terminate or merge the condominium, or dissolve or merge the association, the boards shall so notify the division before taking any action to terminate or merge the condominium or the association. Upon recordation of the instrument evidencing consent of all of the unit owners to terminate the condominium, the association within 30 business days shall notify the division of the termination and the date the document was recorded, the county where the document was recorded, and the book and page number of the public records where the document was recorded, and shall provide the division a copy of the recorded termination notice certified by the clerk.
