ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

ARTICLE I. NAME

The name of this ministry, hereinafter referred to as "corporation", shall be GloryWorks, Inc.

ARTICLE II. DURATION

The period of duration is perpetual unless dissolved according to Florida law.

ARTICLE III. PURPOSE

A. General Purpose. The purpose of this corporation is to establish ways and means to bring worship to Almighty God, our Heavenly Father; to create media in all its forms to reveal the character of God and the heart of man; to provide for the needs of the poor and to inspire others to do so both nationally and internationally; and to spread the Good News which Jesus Christ first revealed by all available means, worldwide.

B. Specific Purposes. The purposes for which the corporation is organized are to receive and maintain a fund or funds of real or personal property, or both, and, subject to the restrictions and limitations hereinafter set forth, to use and apply the whole or any part of the income therefrom and the principal thereof exclusively for charitable, religious, scientific, literary, or educational purposes either directly or by contributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its Regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended, or to organizations that have been established with the same purpose or purposes of this corporation. This corporation shall be a non-profit corporation, and shall not have any capital stock.

C. Primary Purposes

1. To teach and preach and proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ to all people and to teach and preach the Holy Bible, which we believe is the inspired word of God, so as to promulgate Christian faith, beliefs and practices;
2. To awaken and revive Christians to a genuine commitment to Christ-like principles of living;
3. To develop media in all forms and formats so as to creatively minister and express the heart of God to the hearts of people;
4. To minister to the care of the poor, the broken-hearted, and the suffering, especially orphans, refugees and widows, both nationally and internationally;

5. To conduct and operate Christian seminars and meetings, rallies and meeting places to train persons to effectively minister to the needs of other people;

6. Realizing the struggle that people would have in breaking from their old way of life and the undesirable habits involved when entering the new life in Jesus Christ, we purpose to help them make that transition by all means and methods of redirection, rehabilitation, care and guidance;

7. To establish and help build up other new ministries so as to effectively reach for Jesus Christ as many people as possible.

8. To do and undertake for the betterment of humankind through the principles and teachings of the Christian faith, beliefs and practices, all things educational, charitable and religious, including missionary and evangelical, or whatsoever kind or nature;

ARTICLE IV. DIRECTORS

The manner in which the directors are elected or appointed shall be stated in the corporation's By-Laws.

ARTICLE V. INITIAL DIRECTORS

This corporation shall have three (3) directors initially. The number of directors may be either increased or diminished from time to time as set forth in the corporation's By-Laws, but shall never be less than three (3). The names and addresses of the initial directors of the corporation are as follows:

Rev. Thomas R. Pokorni, 1371 NE 114 Terrace, Miami, FL 33161

Rev. Eddy Gervais, 100 NW 198 St., Miami, FL 33169

Rev. Evens Pierre, 3617 Fawn Valley Dr., Unit 2024, Dallas, TX 75224

ARTICLE VI. PREROGATIVES

Section 1. This corporation shall have the right to govern itself according to the standards of the New Testament Scripture, endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace..., till we all come in unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ." (Ephesians 4:3-13)

Section 2. To acquire by devise, bequest, descent, contribution, purchase or otherwise in any lawful manner, and to hold title to and improve real or personal property of any and all kinds and descriptions in the State of Florida or elsewhere, and to sell, bargain, exchange, grant, lease, encumber, ,transfer upon trust, mortgage, alienate, or otherwise lawfully dispose of the same, and income therefrom, that may be necessary or convenient in and to the furtherance and the carrying out of the purposes of this corporation as set forth in Article III.

Section 3. To do or engage in any act or thing or enterprise in furtherance of the aforesaid purposes of this corporation which in the opinion of the Board of Directors shall be for the benefit of this corporation.

Section 4. To employ all the necessary means and agencies to carry out the aforesaid purposes, including the power to borrow money, contract debts, and issue bonds, notes and debentures and secure the payment and performance of its obligations.

Section 5. To act as trustee under any trust or endowment incidental to the specific and primary purposes of the corporation, and in connection therewith to receive, hold, administer and expend funds or real or personal property of every kind and character whatsoever subject to such trust or endowment.

Section 6. To sell and/or distribute and disseminate all manner of Christian literature, writings or media in furtherance of the aforesaid specific and primary purposes of this corporation.

Section 7. To do all and everything necessary, suitable and proper for the accomplishment, attainment or furtherance of any of the objects, powers or purposes herein above set forth in Article III, either alone, or in the association with other corporations, partnerships, ventures, forms, or individuals, and to do every other act or acts, thing or things, incidental or appurtenant to or growing out of or connected with the aforesaid activities or powers or any part or parts thereof, provided the same be not inconsistent with the laws of the general nonprofit corporation laws of the State of Florida under which this corporation is organized, and with furtherance and attainment of the aforesaid general, specific and primary purposes for which this corporation is organized.

Section 8. To exercise all the powers granted by law to corporations under the general nonprofit corporation laws of the State of Florida and to have one or more offices for such purpose in the local city of origin.

Section 9. This corporation shall have and exercise all rights and powers conferred on nonprofit corporations under the laws of the State of Florida, provided, however, that notwithstanding any of the above statements of purposes and powers, this corporation shall not, except to an unsubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the purposes of this corporation above set forth in Article III.

ARTICLE VII. UNAUTHORIZED ACTIVITIES

1. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of any director of the corporation, officer of the corporation, or any private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the corporation affecting one or more of its purposes), and no director or officer of the corporation, or any private individual, shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets on dissolution of the corporation.

2. No substantial part of the activities of this corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence or intervene in any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

3. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, the corporation shall not conduct or carry on any activities not permitted to be conducted or carried on by an organization exempt from taxation under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue code and its Regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended or by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code and Regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

ARTICLE VIII. FINANCES

This corporation shall not have any capital stock.

ARTICLE IX. PROPERTY

All property shall be held in the corporate name of the organization. Real property may be purchased, sold, leased, mortgaged, or otherwise alienated at a regular or special business meeting called for that purpose.

ARTICLE X. AMENDMENTS

These Articles of Incorporation may be amended or changed by a 2/3 vote of the voting membership of this corporation who are in attendance at any regular or special business meeting called for that purpose, provided due notice of such proposed change shall have been made to all members of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE XI. DISSOLUTION

All property of this ministry shall irrevocably be dedicated to the purpose of this ministry as set forth in its By-Laws; and in the event of its dissolution, its President and Secretary are hereby authorized and instructed to convey title to all of its property and assets to Agape Force Miami, Inc., (dba-Community Christian Church), a nonprofit corporation organized and operated exclusively for religious and charitable purposes, which qualified for exemption from Federal Income Tax under provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of Internal Revenue Code, State Franchise Revision Code – provided that Agape Force Miami, Inc. shall elect to receive the same.

Whereupon Agape Force Miami, Inc. shall take possession of said property and assets, and after paying or adequately providing for the debts and obligations of the ministry, shall use the property or the proceeds therefrom for the furtherance of the purposes of Agape Force Miami, Inc.
