ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
In Compliance with Chapter 617, F.S., (Not for Profit)

Article I NAME

The name of the corporation shall be:

Relief For The Needy Corp.

Article II PRINCIPAL OFFICE

The principal place of business and mailing address of this corporation shall be:

505 E. Cummings Street, Lake Alfred, FL 33850

Article III PURPOSE

The purpose for which the corporation is organized:

To act and operate exclusively as a nonprofit corporation pursuant to the laws of the State of Florida, and to act and operate as a charitable organization by providing relief to the poor, distressed, and under-privileged. We will continually seek charitable support from our community, other foundations, and special events as a permanent funding to meet our current and future increasing charitable needs.

This corporation is organized solely for charitable purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

No part of the proceeds of the corporation shall enrich the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, except that the reasonable compensation may be paid for services provided to the corporation. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

If the corporation dissolves, any assets shall be distributed to other corporations serving a similar purpose to ours and qualify as a tax-exempt, under the provisions of 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code or to the federal government or to a state or local government for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

Article IV MANNER OF ELECTION

The manner in which the directors are elected or appointed:

Directors shall consist of a minimum of three and a maximum of five. Voting will be left to the discretion of the directors then in office as stated in our corporations By-Laws; and those who receive the highest number of votes at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be deemed to have been elected. The director's duration in the corporation shall be continuous unless resigning, dismissed and or by vote of the remaining directors. Directors shall not be compensated for their service except if for reimbursement of reasonable approved expenses.

A good, helpful member can step down for a year at the end of the first year and then be reelected to the board as stated in our corporations By-Laws.

Duties and responsibilities of the board are stated in our corporations By-Laws.
