 - b. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including publishing or distribution statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office except as authorized under the Internal Revenue Code;

- c. ARTICLE FOUR

Shall be amended to read as follows:

In accordance with the Bylaws, the number of Directors constituting the Board may be up to nine (9), but shall never be less than three (3). The Board of Directors shall be elected according to the Bylaws.

ARTICLE FIVE

Shall be amended to read as follows:

- (1) The Corporation shall indemnify any Director who is at any time a party to any proceeding (other than an action by, or in the right of, the Corporation), by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a Director of the Corporation against liability incurred in connection with such proceeding, including any appeal thereof, if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Corporation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. The termination of any proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, or conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Corporation or, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful.

- (2) The Corporation shall indemnify any Director who was or is a party to any proceeding by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that the person is or was a Director of the Corporation against expenses and amounts paid in settlement not exceeding, in the judgment of the Board of Directors, the estimated expense of litigating the proceeding to conclusion, actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the defense or settlement of such proceeding, including any appeal thereof. Such indemnification shall be authorized if such person acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Corporation, except that no indemnification shall be made under this subsection in respect of any claim, issue, or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable unless, and only to the extent that, the court in which such proceeding was brought, or any other court of competent jurisdiction, shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which such court shall deem proper.
- (3) To the extent that a Director of the Corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any proceeding referred to in subsection (1) or subsection (2) above, or in defense of any claim, issue, or matter therein, he or she shall be indemnified against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection therewith.
- (4) Any indemnification under subsection (1) or subsection (2) above, unless pursuant to a determination by a court, shall be made by the Corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the Director is proper in the circumstances because he or she has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in subsection (1) or subsection (2) above. Such determination shall be made:
- a. By the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of Directors who were not parties to such proceeding;
 - b. If such a quorum is not obtainable or, even if obtainable, by majority vote of a committee duly designated by the Board of Directors (in which Directors who are parties may participate) consisting solely of two or more Directors not at the time parties to the proceeding; or
 - c. By independent legal counsel:

1. Selected by the Board of Directors prescribed in paragraph (a) or the committee prescribed in paragraph (b); or
 2. If a quorum of the Directors cannot be obtained for paragraph (a) and the committee cannot be designated under paragraph (b), selected by majority vote of the full Board of Directors (in which Directors who are parties may participate).
- (5) Evaluation of the reasonableness of expenses and authorization of indemnification shall be made in the same manner as the determination that indemnification is permissible. However, if the determination of permissibility is made by independent legal counsel, persons specified by paragraph (4)(c) shall evaluate the reasonableness of expenses and may authorize indemnification.
- (6) Expenses incurred by a Director in defending a civil or criminal proceeding shall be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such Director to repay such amount if he or she is ultimately found not to be entitled to indemnification by the Corporation pursuant to this Article.
- (7) Indemnification and advancement of expenses as provided in this section shall continue as, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, to a person who has ceased to be a Director, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of such a person.
