Statement of Beliefs

We, at New Horizon Outreach Ministry Incorporated, is an Apostolic Faith church that believes that we are all spirits in bodies, seeking and discovering our own personal truth in our own unique way.

For many of us, that truth is found through Jesus Christ, or The Divine.

We value all the viewpoints of our ministers and congregation, however varied and controversial they might be.

We believe in religious freedom, as long as it does not infringe on the rights of others and is within the law.

We welcome any who seek truth, wisdom and tolerance.

We use teaching material from a variety of sources, the Bible included, as wisdom is found in many places and people each hear it in different ways.

We believe in Baptism in name of Jesus Christ, ordaining Elders of the church, tithes, communion and members working together in unity.

Through our seminary, we explore many faiths and belief systems and seek to understand the universal truths that each of these contain.
