ARTICLE II
DURATION

The duration of the Corporation existence shall be perpetual.

ARTICLE III PURPOSE

The corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, scientific and educational purposes. To this end, the corporation shall at all times be operated exclusively for these purposes within the meaning of Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, including for such purposes the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or the corresponding section of any future United States Revenue Law. All funds, whether acquired by gift or contribution or otherwise, shall be devoted to said purposes.

The purpose of this organization shall be to:

To feed and provide clothing, furniture, etc. to those who are in need.

To help troubled teenagers build morale and character.

Provide community development, learning and recreational programs for homeless, fatherless and or motherless families.

Assist senior citizens by improving and preserving the quality of their life.

To provide educational programs and support for the purpose of professional development.

To provide a service of aide to people who are distressed, poor, or underprivileged.

This Corporation shall not discriminate on the basis of political or religious affiliation, marital status, race, color, creed national origin, gender, age or disability of individuals.

The corporation shall conduct any and all lawful activities that may or may not be mentioned above, for the furtherance or accomplishment of the foregoing purposes, provided that such activities would not endanger the Corporations not-for-profit status under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (or corresponding section of any future Federal tax code.
