The principal office for the transaction of business of this corporation is to be located at 1516 Reverend Jesse Biggs Blvd. Pahokee Fla. 33476

III – Purposes and Powers

A. The specific purposes for which this corporation is formed are exclusively charitable and religious. The corporation is formed exclusively for religious and charitable purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to the directors, officers, members, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments or distributions in furtherance of its religious or charitable purposes. The assets of the corporation shall be dedicated to the religious and charitable purposes of the corporation. Upon dissolution of the corporation, the assets shall be distributed one or more such tax-exempt organizations as may be designated by New Life Philadelphia Center.

B. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by (1) a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or (2) by corporation contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code.

C. No substantial part of the activities of this corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate or intervene in any political campaign (including the publishing or distribution of statements) on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office.

D. In furtherance but not in limitation of the foregoing religious and charitable purposes the Corporation shall have the following powers:

1. To solicit, collect and receive money and other assets, and to administer funds and contributions received by grant, gift, deed, bequest or devise, and otherwise to acquire money, securities, property rights and services of every kind and description;
2. To hold, bequest, expend, contribute, use, sell or otherwise dispose of any money, securities, property, rights or services so acquired for the purposes above mentioned;
3. To engage in any and all other activities which promote the spiritual welfare of the people and particular the members of this institution.
4. To exercise all other rights and powers conferred upon corporations formed under the General Nonprofit Law of the State of Florida, provided however, that the Corporation shall not engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the specific and primary charitable and educational purposes of this Corporation.

E. All of the foregoing purposes and powers shall be exercised exclusively for religious and charitable purposes in such manner that the Corporation shall qualify as an exempt organization under Section 501 ( c ) ( 3 ) of the Internal Revenue Code as it is currently and shall hereafter be in force and effect.

F. Upon dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501( c ) ( 3 ) of the Internal Revenue Code or future federal tax code.
