Dear Sirs:

It is the opinion of the horse owners of Saddlewood Estates that a formal organization would be beneficial for the promotion and enhancement of equine activities and ownership in our community.

All costs will be born by the members and activities will be limited to Saddlewood and the immediate area. The attached letter to horse owners describe same in detail.

Thank you for your consideration of this request.

William Pope

Dear Saddlewood Horse Owner!

Your fellow Saddlewood neighbors would like to invite you to be a part of a new association for Saddlewood Estate residents that own horses. The purpose of this new association would be to better promote equestrian ownership and activities while protecting our interests within our community.

By banding together, there are several benefits of having our own association:

- ✓ Equestrian-representation with our current neighbors and HOA
- ✓ Horse-sitting, feeding and care opportunities while on vacation
- ✓ Neighbor group rides
- ✓ Open exchange of ideas, problems and solutions

In order to legally form an association, the start-up cost would be approximately $300.00, which would be equally divided by the new members. Based on the current number of horse owners within the neighborhood this would cost approximately $25.00 per household. Since the initial funding is basically for legal fees, the annual dues hereafter will be much lower.

Please join today by contacting Bill Pope at 994-7035 or Cydney Reid at 546-3927.

Thanks!

*Approximate cost based on 80% of current horse owning residents joining
