ARTICLE III: PURPOSE

The purpose for which the corporation is organized is exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code. In particular, the purpose of this corporation is:

- To cooperatively manage and administer a peer-run syndication of assembled Christian entities in District 5 of Florida's Escambia County and in District 3 of Alabama's Escambia County;
- To charitably enable and scientifically benefit the educational advancement of those citizens in District 5 of Florida's Escambia County and in District 3 of Alabama's Escambia County who are economically underserved and whose cultural heritages have been historically marginalized;
- To charitably enable and scientifically benefit the career development of those citizens in District 5 of Florida's Escambia County and in District 3 of Alabama's Escambia County who are economically underserved and whose cultural heritages have been historically marginalized;
- To charitably enable and scientifically benefit the social uplift of those citizens in District 5 of Florida's Escambia County and in District 3 of Alabama's Escambia County who are economically underserved and whose cultural heritages have been historically marginalized, and
- To promote public awareness about those citizens in District 5 of Florida's Escambia County and in District 3 of Alabama's Escambia County who are economically underserved and whose cultural heritages have been historically marginalized, and eliminate stigma associated therewith.

ARTICLE IV: BOARD OF DIRECTORS, OFFICERS AND MANNER OF ELECTION

The management of the affairs of the corporation shall be vested in a board of directors ("the board"), which itself shall also have oversight of all other officers of the corporation and the officers' duties, as defined by the corporation's bylaws. The initial board of directors is inaugurated by these Articles of Incorporation. No director shall have any right, title, or interest in or to any property of the corporation. In the event of desired expansion of the board and/or abdication by any director(s) from the board, additional director(s) shall be elected to the board by simple majority of a quorum of the existing and/or remaining directors at a duly called special meeting, as defined by the corporation's bylaws. All other officers of the corporation shall be elected as defined by the corporation's bylaws.
