Article III: Purposes and Powers

3.1 The Corporation is organized exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary and educational purposes all within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time (the "Code") or the corresponding provision of any subsequent federal tax law ("Section 501(c)(3)).

3.2 Restrictions on Corporate Purpose: An organization must be operated to further one or more of the exempt purposes stated in its organizing document. Certain other activities are prohibited or restricted included but not limited to the following activities. A 501(c)(3) organization must:

- A. Absolutely refrain from participating in the political campaigns of candidates for local, state or federal office.
- B. Absolutely ensure that its assets and earnings do not unjustly enrich board members, officers, key managers, employees, or other insiders
- C. Not further non-exempt purposes (such as purposes that benefit private interest more than insubstantially).
- D. Not Operate for the primary purpose of conducting a trade or business that is not related to its exempt purposes

3.3 Powers: Subject only to such limitations as now or hereafter are prescribed by law or in the Corporation's Articles or Incorporation or Bylaws, the Corporation shall have all power which now or hereafter are conferred by law upon a corporation incidental to the powers so conferred. Specifically, subject only to such limitations, the Corporation may:

A. Take bequest, devise, gift, grant, purchase lease, or otherwise any property, real, personal, tangible or intangible, or any undivided interest herein, without limitation as to amount or value, and hold, administer, sell, convey, or otherwise dispose of such property and invest, reinvest or deal with the principal and the income thereof, all in such manner as, in the judgment of the directors, will further the corporations purposes

Article IX: Dissolution

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all the assets of the corporation exclusively for the purpose of the corporation in such a manner, or to such an organization or organizations organized or operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious, or scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (or the corresponding provision of any future US Internal Revenue law) as the Board of Directors shall determine. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Circuit Court of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations as the court shall determine which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
