I.
Name

The name of the Corporation is Kingdom Church Equippers International Inc., hereinafter referred to as the "Corporation."

II.
Principal Office and Registered Agent

The principal office of the Corporation is 10511 Crystal Ridge Ct, Clermont, Lake County, Florida, 34711. The Corporation may maintain offices and/or transact business at other locations, either within or without the State of Florida.

III.
Purposes

The purpose or purposes for which said corporation is formed are:

Section 1.

(a) To create, establish, and maintain a ministry for the education and training of Ministers to serve as pastors, ministers of the Gospel and missionaries in foreign and home fields.. To assist and train Bible teachers and other Christian workers in various lines of religious, benevolent and philanthropical work. (1 Corinthians 14:12; Proverbs 9:9; II Timothy 2:2)

(b) To create, establish and maintain a ministry for the purpose of establishing Christian Counseling Ministries through trained Pastoral Counselors. To provide continued education and training through the extension programs offered in Christian Ministry and Christian Counseling. To provide continued education and training through the programs offered in Counseling, Business, Christian Education, Church Administration and Law.

(c) To create, establish and maintain a ministry for the purpose of establishing and maintaining Churches, Christian Schools, Christian Missions, Christian Counseling Centers and Counseling Ministries to provide fellowship and encouragement for churches and ministers of the Gospel. To hold, from time to time, seminars for education and training in different aspects of Christian Ministry.

(d) To create, establish, maintain and operate an association of Churches and Ministries to provide such fellowship and training, to be known as Kingdom Church Equippers International, Inc. and to be located in the State of Florida, and such other place or places within the State of Florida or within the United States, as may from time to time be determined by the Board of Directors of this corporation.

(e) To examine and to bestow, license and ordain ministerial candidates and Pastoral Counselors after their qualifications and according to the requirements set forth by the corporation. To examine candidates and appoint missionaries and to endorse missionary programs according to the standards set forth by the New Testament.

(f) The ministry shall grant appropriate credentials and provide for the proper regulation and control of its members. The ministry shall have a racially nondiscriminatory policy towards members and shall not discriminate against applicants and members on the basis of race, color, and national or ethnic origin.

(g) The transaction of any or all-lawful activities for which nonprofit corporations may be incorporated in the State of Florida.

Section 2. The corporation hereby formed shall have the following powers to be duly exercised by its Board of Directors, officers, agents, and employees, as authorized by law:

(a) To acquire property, both real and personal, by purchase, lease, gift, devise, bequest, or otherwise and to hold, invest, use, lease, operate, improve, develop, sell, mortgage or otherwise encumber, and in every way control, manage and deal in personal property and real property, both improved and unimproved, for all appropriate corporate purposes.

(b) For the accomplishment of these objects the corporation shall have the power to establish schools, departments, institutes and branch organizations; to establish an Association of Churches, Christian Shelters and Christian Ministries, and to print, publish, bind, and distribute books, magazines, papers, and other literature as will further carry out the objects of the corporation; to lease suitable buildings and equipment, and to acquire by purchase or gift such personal and real property as may be necessary to carry out the objects of this corporation; and to receive subscriptions and donations of real and personal property and money to be applied to the use and purposes of the corporation; to take, hold and to manage real and personal property conveyed to it in trust, the income from which is to be applied to the uses and purposes of the corporation, and to execute such trusts; to mortgage or otherwise encumber any of its property, or to sell and convey the same; to permit the use of any of its property for religious, educational, benevolent, or other lawful purposes; and to do all other things that may be necessary or appropriate to the full accomplishment of the ministry purposes of the corporation.

(c) The Board of Directors of the corporation shall have the authority and power to fill its own vacancies, to adopt Bylaws, and to make all necessary rules and regulations for the establishment and operation of the ministry and the officers, employees and members thereof; to establish the duties, terms and tenures of its officers and generally to adopt such rules, make such arrangements, and enter into such contracts as to provide effectively for the governance of the ministries and its several components.

(d) To do any and all other acts and to engage in any other business or businesses in any manner connected with or necessary, incidental, convenient or auxiliary to any of the purposes or powers hereinabove enumerated or which shall or may promote the interests of this corporation, the ministerial association, and the general public; to possess and use all the powers authorized and allowed to nonprofit corporations under the laws of this State; and to exercise any and all other powers which a partner or a natural person could have or exercise and which may now or hereafter be authorized by law.

Section 3.
