3. To increase academic performance of participants.

The Men Act Now Program, Inc., implements a plan for providing after school and evening activities to keep at risk adolescents and young teens occupied and supervised while providing useful tutoring. These are youngsters who have been identified to be most likely to become involved in juvenile crime. Studies have proven that there is a direct relation between truancy and academic performance.

4. To reduce juvenile crime in participating communities.

The Men Act Now Program, Inc., is aware of the many problems faced by its participants and the direct correlation these problems may have on juvenile criminal activity. By providing after school and evening activities The Men Act Now Program is addressing the need to offer supervised activities as an alternative to street life for its participants. Seminars and workshops focused on the parents and the communities are aimed at educating the public and encouraging their involvement in crime prevention.

5. To introduce socially desirable lifestyles to participants.

The Men Act Now Program, Inc., is aware of the negative social infrastructures which permeates the community and awaits to assail each of its participants. By implementing a hypodermic model of diverse life activities, it will allow participants to become aware of other opportunities for life growth and development that exist. In addition, the proliferation of this model will break the mode of complacency and acceptance of mediocrity saturates the community. Seminars and workshops focused on developing life skills are aimed at educating our participants and arming them with aspirations of more desirable lifestyles.

6. To reduce/eliminate divorce, domestic violence, and child abuse for participants.

The Men Act Now Program, Inc., implements a plan to offer alternatives for divorce and domestic violence for young adults, as well as early prevention and intervention to prevent the behavior that will lead to such courses of action.

ARTICLE IV
