ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF
OFFICES IN THE LAKES CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION, INC.
(a Florida corporation not for profit)

06 SEP 16 11:41 AM
RECEIVED
CLERK OF DISTRICT COURT
MIAMI

In order to form a corporation not for profit under the laws of the State of Florida, we, the undersigned, do hereby associate ourselves into a corporation for the purposes herein specified and to that we do by these Articles of Incorporation set forth:

ARTICLE I

The name of the corporation shall be Offices in the Lakes Condominium Association, Inc., hereinafter called the "Association."

ARTICLE II

The purpose and objectives of the Association shall be to administer the operation and management of Offices in the Lakes Condominiums, (the "Condominium") in accordance with the Florida Condominium Act (the "Act") upon land situated in Miami-Dade County, Florida, in accordance with the rights reserved by the Developer as contained in the Declaration of Condominium of Offices in the Lakes Condominiums, recorded in the Public Records of Miami-Dade County, Florida and to perform the acts and duties incident to the administration, operation and management of such condominium in accordance with the terms, provisions, conditions and authorizations of these Articles of Incorporation, the Bylaws of the Association to be adopted (the "Bylaws") and in the formal Declaration of Condominium (the "Declaration") which will be recorded in the Public Records of Miami-Dade County, Florida, when the land and the improvements constructed thereon (the "Condominium Property") are submitted to the extent necessary or convenient in the administration of the Condominium. The Association shall be constructed as a non-profit organization for the benefit of its members.

ARTICLE III

The powers of the Association shall include and be governed by the following provisions:

- A. All of the powers and privileges granted to corporations not for profit under the laws pursuant to which this corporation is chartered.
- B. All of the powers reasonable and necessary to implement and effectuate the purposes of the Association, including, without limitation, the power, authority and right to:
 - 1. Make and establish reasonable rules and regulations governing use of the units, the common elements and limited common elements in and of the Condominium as such terms are defined in the Declaration.

2. Power to manage Condominium Property and to Contract, Sue, and Be Sued. The association may contract, sue, or be sued with respect to the exercise or nonexercise of its powers. For these purposes, the powers of the association include, but are not limited to, the maintenance, management, and operation of the condominium property. The association may institute, maintain, settle, or appeal actions or hearings in its name on behalf of all unit owners concerning matters of common interest to most or all unit owners.
3. Assessments; Management of Common Elements. The Association has the power to make and collect assessments and to lease, maintain, repair, and replace the common elements.
4. Right of Access to Units. The association has the irrevocable right of access to each unit during reasonable hours, when necessary for the maintenance, repair, or replacement of any common elements or of any portion of a unit to be maintained by the association pursuant to the declaration or as necessary to prevent damage to the common elements or to a unit or units.
5. Title to Property.
 - a). The association has the power to acquire title to property or otherwise hold, convey, lease, and mortgage association property for the use and benefit of its members. The power to acquire personal property shall be exercised by the board of administration.
 - b). Subject to the provisions of Florida Statute Section 718.112(2)(m), the association, through its board, has the limited power to convey a portion of the common elements to a condemning authority for the purposes of providing utility easements, right-of-way expansion, or other public purposes, whether negotiated or as a result of eminent domain proceedings.
6. Purchase of Leases. The association has the power to purchase any land or recreation lease upon the approval of the voting interest.
7. Purchase of Units. The association has the power to purchase units in the condominium and to acquire and hold, lease, mortgage, and convey them. There shall be no limitation on the association's right to purchase a unit at a foreclosure sale resulting from the association's foreclosure of its lien for unpaid assessments or to take title by deed in lieu of foreclosure.
8. Easements. The board of administration has the authority, without the joinder of any unit owner, to grant, modify, or move any easement if the easement constitutes part of or crosses the common elements or association property. This subsection does not authorize the board of administration to modify, move, or vacate any easement created in whole or in part for the use or benefit of anyone other than the unit owners, or crossing the property of anyone other than the unit owners, without the consent or approval of those other persons having the use or benefit of the easement, as required by law or by the instrument creating the easement. Nothing in this subsection affects the minimum requirements of Florida Statute 718.104(4)(n) or the powers enumerated in subsection (3).

9. Insurance.

- a) A unit-owner controlled association shall use its best efforts to obtain and maintain adequate insurance to protect the association, the association property, the common elements, and the condominium property required to be insured by the association. If the association is developer controlled, the association shall exercise due diligence to obtain and maintain such insurance. Failure to obtain and maintain adequate insurance during any period of developer control shall constitute a breach of fiduciary responsibility by the developer-appointed members of the board of directors or the association, unless said members can show that despite such failure, they have exercised due diligence.
- b) Every hazard insurance policy shall provide primary coverage for:
 - (1) All portions of the Condominium property located outside the unit;
 - (2) The Condominium property located inside the units as such property was initially installed, or replacements thereof, of like kind and quality and in accordance with the original plans and specifications or, if the original plans and specifications are not available, as they existed at the time the unit was initially conveyed; and
 - (3) All portions of the Condominium property for which the declaration requires coverage. Anything to the contrary notwithstanding the terms "Condominium property," "Building," "improvements," "insurable improvements," "common elements," "association property" or any other term found in the Declaration of Condominium which defines the scope of property or casualty insurance that a condominium association must obtain, shall exclude all floors, walls, and ceiling coverings, electrical fixtures, appliances, air conditioners or heating equipment, water heaters, water filters, built in cabinets and counter tops, and window treatments, including curtains, drapes, blinds, hardware, and similar window treatment components, or replacements of any of the foregoing which are located within the boundaries of a unit and serve only one unit and all air conditioner compressors that service only an individual unit whether, or not located within the unit boundary, the foregoing is intended to establish the property or casualty insuring responsibility of the association and those of the individual unit owners and do not serve to broaden or extend the perils of coverage afforded by any insurance contract provided to the individual unit.

- c) Every hazard insurance policy issued or renewed to an individual unit owner shall provide the coverage afforded, by such policy in excess over the amount recoverable under any other policy covering the same property. Each insurance policy issued to an individual unit owner providing such coverage shall be without the rights of subrogation against the condominium association that operates the condominium in which such unit owner's unit is located. All real or personal property located within the boundaries of the unit owner's unit which is excluded from the coverage to be provided by the association shall be insured by the individual unit owner.
 - d) The association shall obtain and maintain adequate insurance or fidelity bonding of all persons who control or disburse funds of the association. The insurance policy or fidelity bond must cover the maximum funds that will be in the custody of the association or its management agent at any one time. As used in this paragraph, the term "persons who control or disburse funds of the association" includes, but is not limited to, those individuals authorized to sign checks and the president, secretary, and treasurer of the association. The association shall bear the cost of bonding.
- 10. Enforce the provisions of these Articles of Incorporation, the Declaration, the Bylaws and all rules and regulations governing use of the Condominium which may from time to time be established.
 - 11. Exercise, undertake, and accomplish all of the right, duties and obligations which may be granted to or imposed upon the Association in the Declaration and the Condominium Statutes.
 - 12. The bylaws shall include a provision granting the association a limited power to convey a portion of the common element to a condemning authority for the purpose of providing utility easements, right-of-way expansion, or other public purposes, whether negotiated or as a result of eminent domain proceedings.

ARTICLE IV

The qualification of members, the manner of their admission to and termination of membership and voting by members shall be as follows:

- A. The Developer shall be a member of the Association as long as the developer owns units in the association. The record owners of all units in the Condominium shall be members of the Association and no other persons or entities shall be entitled to membership, except as provided in Paragraph E, Article IV, hereof.
- B. Membership shall be established by the acquisition of legal title to a unit in the Condominium or in added units, by acquisition of a fee ownership interest therein, and by voluntary conveyance or operation of law. The membership of any person or entity shall be automatically terminated when such person or entity is divested of all title or his entire fee ownership in such unit; provided however that, nothing herein contained shall be construed as terminating the membership of any person or entity owning fee title to or a fee ownership interest in two or more units at any time while such person or entity shall retain fee title to or a fee ownership interest in any unit.

- C. The interest of a member in the funds and assets of the Association cannot be assigned, hypothecated or transferred in any manner, except as an appurtenance to the unit owned by such member. The funds and assets of the Association shall be held or used only for the benefit of the membership and for the purposes authorized herein, in the Declaration and in the Bylaws.
- D. On all matters upon which the membership shall be entitled to vote, there shall be one vote for each unit in the condominium, which vote may be exercised or cast by the owner of each unit as may be provided in the Bylaws of the Association. Should any person or entity own more than one unit such member shall be entitled to exercise or cast one vote for each such unit in the manner provided by the Bylaws.
- E. Until such time as the land and the improvements constructed thereon are submitted to the condominium form of ownership by recordation of the Declaration in the Public Records of Miami-Dade County, Florida, the membership of the Association shall be comprised of the subscribers to these Articles of Incorporation each of whom shall be entitled to cast one vote on all matters on which the membership shall be entitled to vote.

ARTICLE V

The term of the Association shall be perpetual or if the condominium is terminated, the term shall end as soon after termination of the condominium as its affairs can be concluded.

ARTICLE VI

The principal office of the Association shall be located in Florida. The affairs of the Association shall be managed by the Board of Administration. The Board of Administration shall be comprised of three persons appointed by the Developer until such time as the Developer transfers control to the Association pursuant to Florida Statue 718.301. After such an event occurs, the Board of Administration shall be comprised of five persons. The member of the Board of Administration shall be elected by the members of the Association at the annual meeting of the membership as provided by the Bylaws. The Board of Administration may employ a managing agent, agency and/or other managerial and supervisory personnel or entity to administer or assist in the administration of the operation and management of the condominium and the affairs of the Association and any and all such persons and/or entities may be so employed without regard to whether any such person or entity is a member of the Association or a member of the Board of Administration or officer of the Association, as the case may be.

The Board of Administration shall have a President, a Secretary and a Treasurer, and if so decided one or more assistants to such offices. The officers of the Association shall act subject to the direction of the Board of Administration and shall be elected by a majority of Board of Administration. The President shall be elected from the membership of the Board of Administration but no other officer need be a member of the Board of Administration. The same person may hold two offices.

The Developer shall have the right to maintain control of the Association subject to the provisions of the Condominium Act and considering the fact that this Association is created for the purposes of operating and managing the condominium property.

ARTICLE VII

The name and address of the members of the first Board of Administration, who subject to the laws of the State of Florida, these Articles of Incorporation and the Bylaws, shall hold office until their successors are elected pursuant to provisions and procedures set forth in the Bylaws, and take possession, are as follows:

NAME	ADDRESS
Rodolfo Rodriguez	7200 NW 7 Street Suite 100 Miami, Florida 33155
Raymond Gonzalez	7200 NW 7 Street Suite 100 Miami, Florida 33155
Rene Gonzalez	7200 NW 7 th Street Suite 100 Miami, Florida 33155

The subscribers to these Articles of Incorporation are the persons herein named to act and serve as member of the first Board of Administration of the Association. The name of the subscribers and their addresses are set forth in Article VII hereof.

ARTICLE VIII

The officers of the corporation who shall hold office until their successors are elected pursuant to these Articles of Incorporation and the Bylaws shall be the following:

President:	Rodolfo Rodriguez
Secretary:	Raymond Gonzalez
Treasurer:	Rene Rodriguez

ARTICLE IX

The original Bylaws of the Association shall be adopted by a majority of the subscribers to these Articles of Incorporation at a meeting at which a majority of the subscribers are present.

ARTICLE X

Every member of the Board of Administration and every officer of the Association shall be indemnified by the Association against all expenses and liabilities, including counsel fees, reasonably incurred by or imposed upon him in connection with any proceeding or any settlement of any proceeding to which he may be a party, or in which he may become involved by reason of his being or having a member of the Board of Administration or officer of the Association, whether or not he is a Board of Administration or officer at the time such expenses are incurred, except in such cases wherein the member of the Board of Administration or officer is adjudged guilty of willful misfeasance in the performance of his duties; provided that, in the event of any claims for reimbursement or indemnification hereunder based upon a settlement by the member or officer seeking such reimbursement or indemnification, the indemnification herein shall apply only if the Board of Administration approves such settlement and reimbursement as being for the best interest of the Association. The foregoing right of indemnification shall be in addition to and not exclusive of all other rights which such member or officer may be entitled. The Association shall carry errors and omission insurance in favor of officers and members of the Board of Administration.

ARTICLE XI

An amendment or amendments to these Articles of Incorporation may be proposed by the Board of Administration or the Association acting upon a vote of the majority of the members, or by the members of the Association owning a majority of the units in the condominium at the time declared or added, whether meeting as members or by instrument in writing signed by them. Upon any amendment or amendments to these Articles of Incorporation being proposed by the Board per the acting Chief Executive Officer in the absence of the President, who shall thereupon call a special meeting of the membership for a date not sooner than twenty days or later than sixty days from the receipt by him of the proposed amendment, and it shall be the duty of the Secretary to provide each member written notice for such meeting stating the time and place of the meeting and reciting the proposed amendments in reasonable detailed form which notice shall be mailed or presented personally to each member not less than fourteen days nor more than thirty days before the date set for such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed properly given when deposited in the United States mail, addressed to the member at his post office address as it appears in the records of the Association with postage thereupon prepaid. Any member may, by written waiver of notice signed by such member, waive such notice and such waiver when filed in the records of the Association whether before, during, or after the holding of the meeting, shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice to such member. At such meeting the amendment proposed must be approved by an affirmative vote of the member owning not less than two-thirds of the units in the condominium in order for such amendment to become effective. Thereupon, such amendments of these articles of incorporation shall be transcribed and certified in such form as may be necessary to file the same in the office of the Secretary of the State of Florida. A certified copy of each such amendment shall be recorded in the Public Records of Miami-Dade County, Florida within thirty days from the date on which the same is filed in the office of the Secretary of State. No Amendment in valid unless recorded with indemnification on the first page thereof of the book and page of the public records where the declaration of each condominium operated by the Association is recorded.

ARTICLE XII

When unit owners other than the developer own 15 percent or more of the units in a condominium that will be operated ultimately by an association, the unit owners other than the developer shall be entitled to elect no less than one-third of the members of the board of administration of the association. Unit owners other than the developer are entitled to elect not less than a majority of the members of the board of administration of an association:

- a) Three (3) years after fifty (50) percent of the units that will be operated ultimately by the association have been conveyed to purchasers;
- b) Three (3) months after ninety (90) percent of the units that will be operated ultimately by the association have been conveyed to purchasers;
- c) When all the units that will be operated ultimately by the association have been completed, some of them have been conveyed to purchasers, and others are being offered for sale by the developer in the ordinary course of business;
- d) Seven (7) years after recordation of the declaration of condominium; or, in case of an association which may be ultimately operate more than one condominium, seven years after recordation of the declaration for the first condominium it operates; or, in the case of an association operating a phase condominium created pursuant to Florida Statute 718.403, seven years after recordation of the declaration creating the initial phase, whichever occurs first. The developer is entitled to elect at least one member of the board of administration of an association as long as the developer holds for sale in the ordinary course of business at least five (5) percent, in condominiums with fewer than five-hundred (500) units, and two (2) percent, in condominiums with more than five-hundred (500) units, of the units in a condominium operated by the association. Following the time the developer relinquished control of the association, the developer may exercise the right to vote any developer-owned units in the same manner as any other unit owner except for purposes of reacquiring control of the association or selecting the majority members of the board of administration.

Within seventy-five (75) days after the unit owners, other than the developer, are entitled to elect a member or members of the board of administration of an association, the association shall call and give not less than sixty (60) days' notice of an election for the members of the board of administration. The election shall proceed as provided in Florida Statute 718.112 (2)(d). The notice may be given by a unit owner if the association fails to do so. Upon election of the first unit owner other than the developer to the board of administration, the developer shall forward to the division the name and mailing address of the unit owner board member.

1. If a developer holds units for sale in the ordinary course of business, none of the following actions may be taken without approval in writing by the developer:
 - a) Assessment of the developer as a unit owner for capital improvements; and
 - b) Any action by the association that would be detrimental to the sales of units by the developer. However, an increase in assessments for common expenses without discrimination against the developer shall not be deemed to be detrimental to the sales of units;
2. At the time that unit owners, other than the developer, elect a majority of the members of the board of administration of an association, the developer shall relinquish control of the association, and the unit owners shall accept control. Simultaneously, or not more than 90 days thereafter, the developer shall deliver to the association, at the developer's expense, all property of the unit owners and of the association which is held or controlled by the developer, including, but not limited to, the following items, if applicable, as to each condominium operated by the association:
 - a) The original or a photocopy of the recorded declaration of condominium and all amendments thereto. If a photocopy is provided, it shall be certified by affidavit of the developer or an officer or agent of the developer as being complete copy of the actual recorded declaration;
 - b) A certified copy of the articles of incorporation of the association or, if the association was created prior to the effective date of this act and it is not incorporated, copies of the documents creating the association;
 - c) A copy of the bylaws;
 - d) The minute books, including all minutes, and other books and records of the association, if any;
 - e) Any house rules and regulations which have been promulgated;
 - f) Resignations of officers and member of the board of administration who are required to resign because the developer is required to relinquish control of the association;
 - g) The financial records, including financial statements of the association, and source documents from the incorporation of the association through the date of turnover. The records shall be audited for the period from the incorporation of the association or from the period covered by the last audit, if an audit has been performed for each fiscal year since incorporation, by an independent certified public accountant. All financial statement shall be prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and shall be audited in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, as prescribed by the Florida board of Accountancy, pursuant to Chapter 473, of the Florida Statute. The accountant performing the audit shall examine to the extent necessary supporting documents and records, including the cash disbursements and related paid invoices to determine if expenditures were for association purpose and the billings, cash receipts, and related records to determine that the developer was charged and paid the proper amount of assessments;

- h) Association funds or control thereof;
- i) All tangible personal property that is property of the association, which is represented by the developer to be part of the common elements or which is ostensibly part of the common elements, and an inventory of that property;
- j) A copy of the plans and specifications utilized in the construction or remodeling of improvements and the supplying of equipment to the condominium and in the construction and installation of all mechanical components serving the improvements and the site with a certificate in affidavit from of the developer or the developer's agent or an architect or engineer authorized to practice in this state that such plans and specification representing to the best of his or her knowledge and belief, the actual plans and specifications utilized in the construction and improvement of the condominium property and for the constructions and installation of the mechanical components serving the improvements. If the condominium property has been declared a condominium more than 3 years after the completion of construction or remodeling of the improvements, the requirements of this paragraph do not apply;
- k) A list of the names and addresses, of which the developer had knowledge at any time in the development of the condominium, of all contractors, subcontractors, and suppliers utilized in the construction or remodeling of the improvements and in the landscaping of the condominium or association property;
- l) Insurance policies;
- m) Copies of any certificates of occupancy which may have been issued for the condominium property;
- n) Any other permits applicable to the condominium property which have been issued by governmental bodies and are in force or were issued within 1 year prior to the date the unit owners other than the developer take control of the association;
- o) All written warranties of the contractor, subcontractors, suppliers, and manufacturers, if any, that are still effective;
- p) A roster of unit owners and their addresses and telephone numbers, if known, as shown on the developer's records;
