(Amended) ARTICLE III

The Corporation is organized exclusively for artistic, educational and charitable purposes, including for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

(Added) Article IX

Upon dissolution of the Corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed shall be disposed of by a Federal court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organizations, as said court shall determine which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

(Added) ARTICLE X

No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article III hereof.

No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political activities of any kind, except as permitted by the provisions of Section 501 (h) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Notwithstanding to any other provision of these Article of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt amended, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Sections 170(c)(2), 2055, 2106(A)(2) and 2522 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or corresponding sections of any future federal tax code.

(Added) ARTICLE XII

The Corporation shall have the power to acquire, own, maintain and use its asset for the purposes for which it is organized; to raise funds by any legal means for the advancement of its purposes; to acquire, hold own, use and dispose of real or personal property in connection with furtherance of the purposes for which the Corporation is organized; and to exercise all powers granted to a corporation not for profit under Florida law. In addition to the power specified, the Corporation shall have the additional powers specified in its bylaws.

(Added) ARTICLE XIII

The Corporation shall not have members.

(Added) ARTICLE XIV

The bylaws of the Corporation may be amended, altered, or repealed and new bylaws may be adopted only by the affirmative vote of a majority of the entire Board of Directors. The bylaws may contain any provisions for the regulation and management of the affairs of the Corporation not inconsistent with law or these Articles of Incorporation.

(Added) ARTICLE XV

Management of the Corporation shall be vested in the Corporation's Board of Directors, the members of which shall be not less than three. The number and method of election of the directors of the Corporation who shall serve following the terms of the initial directors of the Corporation shall be as stated in the bylaws.
