Article IV: Manners of Election

Section 4.1: The affairs of this church shall be governed by a Board of Directors (hereafter referred to as the "Board"), subject to the restriction that, except as specifically set forth to the contrary in the By-Laws. The exercise of any powers or actions of the Board shall require the approval of a majority vote of the Board. The affirmative vote shall be majority vote of the members. The Board currently consists of six (6) members, however this number may increase or decrease as new members may be added or taken away due to elections or removal by other Board members.

Section 4.2: The Presiding Officer has reserved the right to reconsider or veto Board decisions that were made without the Presiding Officer presence specifically if the decision made is not seen as beneficial to the Church.

Section 4.3: The Board of Directors consists of the following:
Presiding Officer
Legal Officer
Financial Officer
Clerical Officer
Member

Section 4.4: All new members of the Board shall be appointed by the existing members as the needs arise or at elections. All members must be chosen and accepted on the basis of Scriptural qualification laid down in 1 Timothy 3 and Titus 1 and must be official members of the Church.

Section 4.5: All Board members will maintain their position for a three year term after which their position goes up for reelection. However all members of the Board are subject to removal at any time when they cease to qualify under the original qualifications, which they were appointed even before their term has ended.

Section 4.6 The Board will determine, on the basis of the majority vote, when any member of the Board is no longer fulfilling the necessary qualifications for office, or if their term is completed. The Board will then make nominations to either reinstate member for another three years or give nominations for a replacement. Board members may also withdraw voluntarily at their own request.

Section 4.7: Although Board members can be removed by majority vote of the Board; the Presiding Officer can only be removed by retirement, resignation, death or at the discretion of the current Board members.

Article V: Dissolution of Corporation

Section 5.1: Upon the dissolution of the organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501 (C) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any further federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
