1986, as amended (referred to herein as the "Code"; all references to a specific Section of the Code also refer to a corresponding provision of any future federal tax code).

4.2 In furtherance of Section 4.1, the Corporation is formed to exercise any, all and every power for which a not-for-profit corporation organized under the applicable provisions of the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act (the "Act") for charitable, religious, educational and scientific purposes, or for the public welfare, may be authorized to exercise.

4.3 The Corporation shall have all powers permitted by law that are necessary and incidental to the fulfillment of its purposes.

4.4 All purposes and powers of this Corporation as stated in this Articles of Incorporation shall be limited exclusively to those purposes and powers as comply with Section 501 (c) (3) of the Code.

ARTICLE V

5.1 The Corporation is not organized for, nor does it afford, pecuniary gain, incidentally or otherwise, to its members as such or shall it have any power to issue certificates of stock or declare dividends. No part of the Corporation's net earnings shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, directors, officers or other private persons; except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable expenses, including reasonable compensation for services rendered, and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the objects and purposes set forth in Article IV hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall no participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

5.2 Notwithstanding any other provision of the Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by an organization exempt from federal income taxation under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Code or (b) by an organization , contributions to which are deductible under Section 170 (c) (2), Section 2055 (a) and Section 2522 (a) of the Code.

5.3 Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the Corporation, distribute all of the assets of the Corporation exclusively for the purposes of the organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious, literary or scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Code, as the Board of Directors shall determine. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the district court of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as the court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes. No member, director, officer or other private person shall be entitled to share in the distribution of the assets of the Corporation on dissolution of the Corporation.

5.4 If the Corporation is found to be a private foundation, as that term is defined in Section 509 of the Code, then the Corporation's income for each taxable year shall be distributed at such time and in such manner as not to subject it to taxes under Section 4942 of the Code, and the Corporation shall be prohibited from engaging in any act of self-dealing as defined under Section 4941 (d) of the code, from retaining any excess business holdings as defined under Section 4943 (c) of the Code, from making any investments in such manner as to subject this Corporation to tax under Section 4944 of the Code, and from making any taxable expenditures as defined under Section 4945 (d) of the Code.

ARTICLE VI

The Board of Directors of the Corporation shall consist of one or more members. The number of directors shall be fixed by, or in the manner provided in, the Bylaws. The Directors are elected annually by the active members of the corporation. The names and mailing addresses of the persons who serve as directors until their successors are elected and qualified are as follows:
