ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF HANCOCK BRIDGE CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION, INC.

The undersigned natural person, competent to contract, acting as an incorporator of a corporation for profit under Chapter 607 of the Florida Statutes, adopts the following articles of incorporation.

Article I
Name

The name of this corporation is Hancock Bridge Condominium Association, Inc.

Article II
Place of Business

The principal place of business is: 509 Hancock Bridge Pkwy., Cape Coral, Florida 33990.

Article III
Purposes

The purposes and objects of the corporation are such as are authorized under Chapter 607 of the Florida Statutes and include providing for the maintenance, preservation, administration, and management of Hancock Bridge Condominium, a condominium under the Florida Condominium Act.

The corporation is organized and operated solely for administrative and managerial purposes. It is not intended that the corporation show any net earnings, but no part of any net earnings that do occur shall inure to the benefit of any private member. If, in any taxable year, the net income of the corporation from all sources other than casualty insurance proceeds and other non-recurring items exceeds the sum of (1) total common expenses for which payment has been made or liability incurred within the taxable year, and (2) reasonable reserves for common expenses and other liabilities in the next succeeding taxable year, such excess shall be held by the corporation and used to reduce the amount of assessments that would otherwise be required in the following year. For such purposes, each unit owner will be credited with the portion of any excess that is proportionate to his or her interest in the common elements of the condominium.

Article IV Shares

The number of shares of stock is two. Each condominium unit shall have appurtenant to it one share in the corporation, which share shall be held by the person or entity, or in common by the persons or entities owning such unit, except that no person or entity holding title to a unit as security for performance of an obligation shall acquire the share appurtenant to the unit by virtue of the title ownership. In no event may any share be severed from the unit to which it is appurtenant.

Article IX
Powers of Corporation

To promote the health, safety and welfare of the residents of Hancock Bridge Condominium, the corporation may:

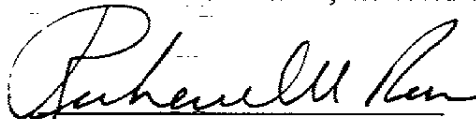

- (1) Exercise all of the powers and perform all of the duties of the association as set forth in the declaration of condominium and in the bylaws attached thereto, as those documents may from time to time be amended.
- (2) Determine, levy, collect, and enforce payment by any lawful means of all assessments for common charges, and pay such common charges as the same become due.

- (3) Engage the services of a professional corporate management agent and delegate to the agent any of the powers or duties granted to the association of unit owners under the declaration or bylaws other than the power to engage or discharge the agent; the power to adopt, amend and repeal the provisions of it, or of the declaration, bylaws, or rules and regulations of the condominium.
- (4) Take and hold by lease, gift, purchase, devise, or bequest any property, real or personal, including any unit in the condominium, borrow money and mortgage any property to finance the acquisition of it, and transfer, lease, and convey any such property.
- (5) Dedicate or otherwise transfer all or any portion of the common areas to any municipality, public agency, authority or utility.
- (6) Have and exercise any and all rights, privileges and powers which may be held or exercised by corporations generally under Chapter 607 of the Florida Statutes, or by associations of unit owners under the Condominium Act.

Article X
Dissolution

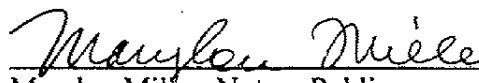

This corporation may be dissolved at any time with the written consent of both of the shareholders.

In witness, the undersigned, being the incorporator of this corporation, has, for the purpose of forming this profit corporation under the laws of the state of Florida, executed these articles of incorporation on October 20, 2006.
