ARTICLE I NAME

The name of the corporation shall be: Panhandle Animal Lovers, Incorporated

ARTICLE II PRINCIPAL OFFICE

The principal place of business and mailing address of this corporation shall be:

3363 Airport Road, Crestview, Florida 32539, in Okaloosa County.

The mailing address shall be the same.

Article III PURPOSE

The purpose for which the corporation is organized is:

To prevent cruelty to animals by caring for, and adopting out to qualified households, animals (principally dogs and cats) that are lost, accepted from Animal Control Organizations, and other Animal Welfare Facilities. Additionally, this corporation will insure that a qualified Veterinarian will give all animals received a complete health check-up, and if health problems are found, the animals will be given complete and proper treatment before being adopted out. All animals will be spayed or neutered by a qualified Veterinarian before being adopted out to an acceptable household.

The personal involved in the operation of this corporation are all volunteers, without compensation or fringe benefits. All monies, either paid out or received, will be used to care for received animals. Complete records of transactions will be kept. Reasonable adoption fees will be collected and donations will be accepted from animal lovers. The volunteers will absorb all monetary losses. This corporation expects no excess funds at any time.

Said corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article Third hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code. This corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the purposes of this corporation.

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE IV MANNER OF ELECTION

The initial officers were elected by mutual agreement among the volunteers at a meeting of all volunteers held on September 23, 2006. Future elections will take place on/about that date of each following year. No Board of Directors will be elected. All volunteers act as the directing board at all times.
