7. Purpose.

A. The Corporation is organized and shall be operated for religious, charitable, scientific, literary and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or any corresponding provisions of further Internal Revenue laws, and the regulations pertinent thereto (referred to herein as the "Internal Revenue Code"), including the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The foregoing statement of purpose shall not be considered as limiting or restricting in any manner the powers conferred upon corporations by Florida Corporations Not For Profit Laws set forth in Chapter 617 of the Florida Statutes, as amended, and, therefore, the Corporation shall have the power to transact any business not prohibited by law or required to be stated herein.

B. The Corporation is organized for the benefit of, and to carry out the purposes of LifeNet Health, a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

C. D. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the Corporation shall only carry on activities permitted to be carried on (i) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or (ii) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c), 2055 and 2522 of the Internal Revenue Code.

8. Inurement of Earnings and Compensation. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, the Corporation's Board of Directors, officers, trustees (if any), or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered to the Corporation and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article 7 above.

9. Disposition of Assets Upon Dissolution. Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, the Corporation's Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the Corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the Corporation exclusively for the purposes of the Corporation in such manner, or to such organization or organizations organized exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary and/or educational purposes, as shall at that time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Any assets not so disposed of by the Board of Directors shall be disposed of by the Court of the city or county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for the purposes set forth in Articles 7 hereof or to such organization or organizations as said Court shall determine, which organization(s) is or are organized exclusively for such purposes.

10. Indemnification. The liability of the directors and officers of the Corporation shall be limited, and the Corporation shall indemnify its directors and officers, as follows:

A. In any proceeding brought by or in the right of the Corporation or brought by or on behalf of directors of the Corporation, a director or an officer of the Corporation shall not be liable to the Corporation for any monetary damages arising out of any transaction, occurrence or course of conduct, unless in such proceeding the director or officer was adjudged to have engaged in willful misconduct or a knowing violation of the criminal law or any federal or state securities law.

B. The full extent required or permitted by the Florida Corporation Not for Profit Laws set forth in Chapter 617 of the Florida Statutes and any other applicable law, and to the manner thereby prescribed, the Corporation shall indemnify a director or officer of the Corporation who is or was a party to any proceeding by reason of the fact that he or she is or was such a director or officer or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust employee benefit plan or other profit or non-profit enterprise. The Corporation shall promptly pay for or reimburse the reasonable expense, including attorneys' fees, incurred by any such director or officer of the Corporation in connection with any such proceeding (whether or not made a party).
