ARTICLE II - PURPOSE

The Kenneth P. Rushing Foundation has been formulated primarily to raise money to teach people how to invest in real estate, how to develop entrepreneurship skills, and teach business development. It's various educational programs will help to empower, educate, and inspire our communities to become aware of and take advantage of the opportunities available through real estate and business.

The Kenneth P. Rushing Foundation also provides mentorship to those who lack necessary social skills, and lack computer literacy. Through a variety of seminars and workshops, the Kenneth P. Rushing Foundation will offer ways of helping troubled youth, and will raise awareness in our communities.

The Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational and scientific purposes, including such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as an exempt organization under section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

No part of the net earnings of the organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, its trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the purpose clause hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the activities of the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the organization shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by an organization exempt from Federal Income Tax under section of any future tax code, or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170 (c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
