Articles of Incorporation of Iglesia Saluz, Inc.
A Florida Not for Profit Corporation

Article I – Name

The name of the corporation is Iglesia Saluz, Inc., a Florida corporation, not for profit.

Article II – Principal Office

The principal place of business and mailing address of this corporation is 11391 NW 34th Place, Sunrise, FL 33323.

Article III – Purpose

The corporation is formed exclusively for such religious purposes as will qualify it as an exempt organization under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations which qualify as tax-exempt organizations under that code.

The corporation is not for profit, pursuant to Chapter 617 of the Laws of the State of Florida, to be operated for religious purposes exclusively.

Within the scope of the foregoing, the corporation is specifically organized to provide a place for the worship of Almighty God and to build up believers in Jesus Christ so that they may make God known to all humankind through faith and deed.

The corporation shall not, as a substantial part of its activities, carry on propaganda or otherwise attempt to influence legislation; nor shall it participate or intervene (by publication or distribution of any statements or otherwise) in any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

Article IV – Term

The corporation shall exist perpetually until dissolved by due process of Law.

Article V – Management of Corporate Affairs

- (a) Board of Elders. The powers of the corporation shall be exercised, its properties controlled, and its affairs conducted by a Board of Elders. The number of Elders of the corporation may be increased or diminished from time to time by the Bylaws but shall never be less than three (3).

The Elders named herein as the first Board of Elders shall hold office until the first meeting of Members at which time an election of Elders shall be held. The method of selection of Elders is stated in the Bylaws of this corporation.

Elders elected at the first annual meeting, and at all times thereafter, shall serve for a term of one year or until the first annual meeting of Members following the election of Elders and until the qualification of the successors in office. Annual meetings shall be held at the principal office of the corporation, or at such other place or places as the Board of Elders may designate from time to time by resolution.

Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board of Elders under any provision of law may be taken without a meeting if all Members of the Board shall individually or collectively consent in writing to such action. Such written consent or consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board and any such action by written consent shall have the same force and effect as if taken by unanimous vote of the Elders. Any certificate or other document filed under any provision of law which relates to action so taken shall state that the action was taken by unanimous written consent of the Board of Elders without a meeting and that the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of the corporation authorize the Elders to so act. Such a statement shall be prima facie evidence of such authority.

The names and addresses of such first Members of the Board of Elders are as follows:

Article VII – Incorporator

The name and address of the incorporator of the Articles of Incorporation is:

Reverend Emilio A. Reyes, 11391 NW 34th Place Sunrise, FL 33323

Article VIII – Membership

The membership of the corporation shall consist of all persons hereinafter named as members and all other persons as, from time to time hereafter, may be elected to membership by the Board of Elders. Qualification for membership shall be satisfied by all persons expressing an interest in the purposes of the corporation. The Elders shall from time to time prescribe form and manner in which application may be made for membership, and members may be admitted by the Board of Elders only. The authorized number of the Members of the corporation, the different classes of membership (if any), the property, voting and other rights and privileges of members, and their liability for dues and assessments and the method of collection thereof shall be set forth in the Bylaws.

Article IX – Activities Not Permitted

Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation will not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by (a) a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States internal revenue law or (b) a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or any other corresponding provision of any future United States revenue law.

Article X – Dedication and Distribution of Assets

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of any Member, Director, or Officer of the corporation or any private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the corporation affecting one or more of its purposes) and no Member, Director, or Officer of the corporation or any private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets upon dissolution of the corporation.

Upon the dissolution of this corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose.

Iglesia Saluz, Inc. Articles of Incorporation

Article XI – Indemnification

Every person who now is or hereafter shall be a Director or Officer of the corporation shall be indemnified by the corporation against all costs and expenses (including counsel fees) hereafter reasonably incurred by or imposed upon him in connection with, or resulting from, any action, suit or proceedings of whatever nature, to which he is or shall be made a party by reason of his being or having been a Director or Officer of the corporation (whether or not he is a Director or Officer of the corporation at the time he is made a party to such action, suit or proceeding, or at the time such cost or expense is incurred by or imposed upon him) except in relation to matters as to which he shall be finally adjudged in such action, suit or proceeding to have been derelict in the performance of his duties as such Director or Officer. The right of indemnification herein provided shall not be exclusive of other rights to which any such person may now or hereafter be entitled to as a matter of law.

Article XII – Bylaws

The Board of Elders of the corporation may provide such Bylaws for the conduct of the business of the corporation and the carrying out of its purposes as such Elders may deem necessary from time to time. Upon notice properly given, the Bylaws may be amended, altered or rescinded by majority vote of the Elders present at any regular or special meeting called for that purpose, subject to any limitations set forth in the Corporations Not for Profit Law of Florida concerning corporate action that must be authorized or approved by Members of the corporation.

Article XIII – Amendments to Articles of Incorporation

An amendment to these Articles of Incorporation may be proposed by any Member of the Corporation, but such amendment may be adopted only after receiving an affirmative vote of the majority of the Board of Elders.

Having been named as registered agent to accept service of process for the above stated corporation at the place designated in this certificate, I am familiar with and accept the appointment as registered agent and agree to act in this capacity.
