I, the undersigned natural person of age twenty-one years or more, acting as incorporator of a corporation not for profit, adopt the following Articles of Incorporation for such corporation pursuant to Chapter 617, of the statutes of the State of Florida.

ARTICLE I

The name of this corporation shall be Anant Missionary Ashram, Inc. The principal office and the mailing address is 10948 Pinewood Cove Lane, Orlando, Florida 32817.

ARTICLE II

The term of the corporation is perpetual.

ARTICLE III

The address of the Corporation's initial registered office is 10948 Pinewood Cove Lane, Orlando, Florida 32817 and its initial registered agent at such address is Vijai K. Tiwari.

ARTICLE IV

The purpose for which the corporation is organized is exclusively for religious, charitable, educational and scientific, that are described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, including but not limited to the organization, maintenance and supervision of the office center.

The corporation purpose for which it is formed are religious, charitable, educational and scientific, and more particularly: to fund and implement an empowerment program that serves all people from any background, at home and abroad, without regard of race, color, creed, gender or politics:

- A. To foster the development of spiritual life and to promote the word of God, locally and abroad, by implementing programs that provide opportunities to individuals as well communities to participate in worship, fellowship and engagement in selfless community service, and to grow in scriptural knowledge of various mainstream religions, mainly Hinduism and Christianity, their philosophy and application in daily life, and practical means for spiritual growth and happiness, enabling them to become positive contributors to the society.
- B. To provide relief to the poor, the distressed and underprivileged, by meeting life's basic needs, and to serve the social, cultural and religious needs of both, the individual and the general public, and to engage in missionary work, to share the love of God through selfless human service, and participate in missions that are inclined towards Overcoming poverty, Primary health care, Area development, Homeless-shelter, and Poor-people-housing.
- C. To produce and distribute learning material of all kinds, including printing, audio and video-tapes, seminars, charts, publications for the purpose of the empowerment program.

In furtherance, but not in limitation of the forgoing purposes, the corporation shall have the power and authority:

- A. To receive assistance, money, real or personal property and any other form of contributions, gifts, bequest or devise from any person, firm or corporation, to be utilized in the furtherance of the objects and purposes of this corporation; to enter into agreements or contracts for contributions to the corporation for its objects and purposes, provided however, the gifts shall be subject to acceptance by the Board of Directors as required by the bylaws.
- B. To distribute, in the manner, form and method, and by means determined by the Board of Directors of this corporation, any and all forms of contributions received by it in carrying out the programs of the corporation in the furtherance of its stated purposes. Money and real or personal property contributed to the corporation in furtherance of those objects and purposes are and shall continue to be impressed with a trust for such purposes.

- C. To adapt and use a corporation seal containing the words Corporation Not For profit is desired and deemed necessary, but this shall not be compulsory unless required by the law.
- D. Each and all of the objects, purposes and powers of the Corporation, however, shall be exercised, construed and limited in their application to accomplish the purpose for which this Corporation is formed.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, this corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from Federal Income Tax under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Revenue law.

ARTICLE V

All corporate powers shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the affairs of the Corporation shall be managed under the direction of a Board of Directors. The conditions of election to the Board of Directors and the number of directors (which number shall not be less than 3) shall be as provided in the Bylaws.

ARTICLE VI

The regulation of the internal affairs of the corporation, including the distribution of assets on dissolution, shall be provided for in the Bylaws and shall include that:

1. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its Directors, or officers, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth above.

2. Upon dissolution of the Corporation or winding down of its affairs, the assets of the Corporation shall be applied and distributed as follows:
 - A. All liabilities and obligations of the Corporation shall be paid, satisfied and discharged, or adequate provision shall be made therefore:
 - B. Assets held by the Corporation upon condition requiring return, transfer of conveyance, which condition occurs by reason of the dissolution or winding down, shall be returned, transferred or conveyed in accordance with such requirements; and
 - C. All remaining assets not disposed of under either of the preceding paragraphs (A) or (B) shall be transferred or conveyed to one or more charitable, education or scientific organizations which are described on Section 501 (c) (3) and to which deductible contributions can be made under Section 170 (c) (2), 2522 (a) as the Board of Directors shall select.

All statutory references herein are to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue law).

ARTICLE VII

A Director of the corporation shall not receive compensation, directly or indirectly, for services as a director. An officer of the Corporation shall not receive compensation, directly or indirectly, for services as an officer unless employed by the Board of Directors as: (1) a member of the administrative staff of the Corporation or (2) for services rendered in other capacities. These prohibitions shall not preclude reimbursement of expenses or advances made for the Corporation that are reasonable in character and amount not for services rendered in other capacities and approved for payment in the manner provided by the Bylaws.

ARTICLE VIII

Every director and officer of the Corporation shall be indemnified by the Corporation reasonable incurred by or imposed in connection with any proceeding or any settlement of proceeding (including any appeal thereof) to which a director or officer may be a party or may become involved by reason of being or having been a director or officer of the Corporation, whether or not a director or officer at the time such expenses are incurred, except when the director or officer is adjudged guilty of, or liable for, willful misfeasance or willful misfeasance in the performance of duties; provided that in the event of a settlement before entry of judgment, the indemnification shall apply only when the Board of Directors approves such settlement and reimbursement as being in the best interest of the Corporation. The foregoing right of indemnification shall be in addition to and not exclusive of all other rights to which such director or officer may be entitled by law. Appropriate liability insurance may be provided for every director, officer, and agent of the Corporation in amounts determined from time to time by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE IX

The fiscal year of the Corporation shall begin January 1st and end December 31st of each calendar year.

ARTICLE X

The By-laws may be made, altered or rescinded by a majority vote of the directors at any meeting at which a quorum is present. The articles of Incorporation may be amended, altered or rescinded by a two thirds (2/3) vote of the directors at any meeting at which time a quorum is present, at any regular meeting or at any special meeting when due notice has been served in accordance with the By-laws.
