ARTICLE III PURPOSE

The purpose for which the corporation is organized is:
To perform behavioral observations on captive animals, supervise students in these endeavors, and promote the conservation of the animals studied by expanding the knowledge of their behaviors. This corporation will work with area zoological parks to observe the behaviors of the animals in their exhibits. This corporation will work to increase the understanding and perception of the animals studied. In addition, these findings can be a valuable asset to how animals are exhibited at zoos. It will also train students of animal behavior on how to properly record behavioral observations.
This corporation is organized exclusively for scientific and educational purposes, including for such purposes, the making of distribution to organizations that qualify under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or any corresponding section of any future federal tax code. No proceeds of the corporation will enrich any individual, except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services to the corporation. If the corporation is dissolved, any assets remaining will be distributed to another corporation serving a similar purpose and qualifying as a tax-exempt, charitable organization under the provisions of 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.
