Articles of Incorporation

Article III: Purpose:

The purpose for which the corporation is organized is:

To proclaim the good news of the salvation of Jesus Christ to the world, to provide financial support to Christian Ministries International, Inc. (EIN 63-1165538), to conduct religious, charitable, and humanitarian activities, to establish and support churches, church schools, Christian missions, radio and television ministries, Christian camps and retreat centers, Christian academic institutions, housing for the elderly, progressive care facilities, housing for the mentally ill, housing for the poor, and health care facilities both in the United States and abroad according to the standards set forth by the New Testament.

Said corporation is organized exclusively for charitable and religious purposes. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in herein. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, the Board of Trustees shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the corporation exclusively for the purposes of the corporation in such manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable and religious purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) as the Board of Trustees shall determine.
