NO. 036 FILED 2
07 MAY 24 PM 2:09

SECRETARY OF STATE
TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

Articles of Incorporation of
Foundation for CranioSacral and Integrative Therapies, Inc.

ARTICLE I NAME

The name of this Corporation is Foundation for CranioSacral and Integrative Therapies, Inc.

ARTICLE II
NON PROFIT STATUS

The Corporation shall be a not for profit corporation organized and operated pursuant to the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act (Florida Statutes Chapter 617) (the "Act").

ARTICLE III
DURATION

The Corporation shall have perpetual duration.

ARTICLE IV PURPOSES

The Corporation is to be formed exclusively for the purpose of providing funding for those who need and are unable to afford craniosacral and integrative therapies. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary herein, the purpose of the Corporation shall never be outside the scope of receiving and administering funds for charitable purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code").

ARTICLE V POWERS

Except as otherwise provided in these Articles of Incorporation or in the Bylaws of the Corporation, the Corporation shall have the power and authority to do all things and everything necessary and proper for the accomplishment of any of the purposes or the attaining of any of the objectives enumerated in these Articles of Incorporation or any amendment hereof, necessary or incidental to the protection and benefit of this Corporation, and, in general, either alone or in association with other associations, corporations, firms, or individuals, to carry on any lawful pursuit necessary or incidental to the accomplishment, attainment, or furtherance of the purposes and objectives of this Corporation.

The Corporation shall have power to receive, accept and administer donations, in money or in property, either without restriction, or restricted to such purposes as the donor may provide; provided, however, such purpose is within the purpose of this Corporation, and any such restricted donations shall be used for the purposes to which restricted.

ARTICLE VI LIMITATIONS

The Corporation is not organized and shall not be operated for profit or pecuniary gain. Notwithstanding any other provisions contained in these Articles of Incorporation, no part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its Directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article IV hereof. The Corporation shall not, except as an insubstantial part of its activities, attempt to influence legislation by propaganda or otherwise and shall not participate or intervene in any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from federal income tax under Code Section 501(c)(3).

Notwithstanding any other provisions contained in these Articles of Incorporation, during those years in which the Corporation constitutes a "private foundation" as described in Code Section 509(a), the Corporation must distribute its income for each taxable year at such time and in such manner as not to subject the Corporation to tax under Code Section 4942, and the Corporation shall be prohibited from all of the following: (a) engaging in any act of "self-dealing" (as defined in Code Section 4941(d); (b) retaining any "excess business holdings" (as defined in Code Section 4943(c); (c) making any investments in such manner as to subject the Corporation to tax under Code Section 4944; and (d) making any taxable expenditures (as defined in Code Section 4945(d).

Upon liquidation of the Corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the Corporation, distribute all assets to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, or scientific purposes as shall at that time qualify as an exempt organization or exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, as the Board of Directors shall determine. Any assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the superior court of the county in which the Corporation's registered office is located, exclusively for exempt, charitable, educational, or scientific purposes or to such organization or organizations as said court shall determine are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE VII DIRECTORS

The affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by a Board of Directors. The number of Directors of the Corporation and the method of election shall be set out in the bylaws of the Corporation. The Director(s) of the Corporation, in accordance with any applicable provisions of the Bylaws, shall serve for one (1) year or until qualified successors are duly elected and have taken office. The Bylaws may provide for the method of voting in the Director's election for the removal from office of any Director, for filling vacancies, and for the duties of the Director(s). If the office of any Director shall become vacant for any reason, the Board of Directors may elect or appoint an individual to fill such vacancy under the procedure set forth in the Bylaws.

The initial Board of Directors shall consist of five (5) members whose names and addresses are:

For purposes of these Articles of Incorporation, "charitable purposes" include charitable, educational, religious, literary, and scientific purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, contributions for which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Code. All references in these Articles of Incorporation to sections of the Code shall be considered references to the Internal revenue Code of 1986, as from time to time amended, and to the corresponding provisions of any applicable future United States Internal Revenue Law, and to all regulations issued under sections and provisions.

ARTICLE X

MEMBERS

The Corporation shall not have members.

ARTICLE XI

INDEMNIFICATION

Provided the person proposed to be indemnified satisfied the requisite standard of conduct for permissive indemnification by a corporation as set forth in the applicable provisions of the Florida Business Corporation Act (currently Sections 607.0850(1) and (2) of the Florida Statutes), as the same may be amended from time to time (the "Act"), the Corporation shall indemnify its officers and directors, and may indemnify its employees and agents, to the fullest extent permitted by the provisions of such Act (subject to any limitations contained in an agreement entered into by such person and the Corporation), from and against any and all of the expenses or liabilities incurred in defending a civil, criminal, administrative or investigative action, suit or proceeding (collectively, "proceeding") (other than in a proceeding (a) initiated by such person (unless authorized by the Board of Directors of the Corporation), or (b) wherein the corporation and such person are adverse parties except for proceedings brought derivatively or by any receiver or trustee) or other matters referred to in or covered by said provisions, including advancement of expenses prior to the final disposition of such proceedings and amounts paid in settlement of such proceedings, both as to action in their official capacity and as to action in any other capacity while an officer, director, employee or other agent.

Expenses (including attorney's fees) incurred by an officer or director in defending any civil, criminal, administrative or investigative proceeding shall be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of such proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such director or officer to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he or she is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation as authorized in this section. Such expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by other employees and agents shall also be so paid upon such terms and conditions, if any, as the board of Directors deems appropriate.

The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided for herein shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those indemnified may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of shareholders or directors or otherwise, both as to action in his or her official capacity and as to action in any other capacity while holding such office. Such indemnification shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs and personal and other legal representatives of such a person. Except as otherwise provided above, an adjudication of liability shall not affect the right to indemnification for those indemnified.

ARTICLE IX

AMENDMENT

The corporation reserves the right to amend or repeal any provisions contained in these Articles of Incorporation, or any amendment hereto, and any right conferred upon the director(s) is subject to this reservation.
