ARTICLE IV

Purposes, Powers and Rights

Unless otherwise provided in the Bylaws, the Corporation shall be organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (hereinafter the "Code"), as amended from time to time, or any superseding section in order to, at the Corporation's discretion:

- (a) Find housing, educational programs, health care services, and employment for juvenile offenders, the homeless, and people with low income;

(b) Provide counseling services relative to alcohol and drug abuse, as well as counsel against premarital sexual intercourse and the consequences of sexually transmitted diseases, unprotected sex, and unwanted pregnancies.

(c) Operate for any other purpose as set out in the Corporation's Bylaws.

The Corporation is not organized, nor shall it be operated, for pecuniary gain or profit, and it does not contemplate the distribution of gains, profits, or dividends to its directors and it is organized solely for nonprofit purposes. The property, assets, and net income of the Corporation are irrevocably dedicated to charitable, religious and educational purposes.

Solely for the above purposes, the Corporation is empowered to exercise all rights and powers conferred by the laws of the State of Florida upon not-for-profit corporations, including, but without limitation thereon, to acquiring assets for the above purposes.

Notwithstanding any other provisions herein, the Corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(a) of the Code as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code.
