The undersigned, acting as incorporators of a corporation pursuant to Chapter 617, Florida Statutes, adopt the following articles of incorporation for such corporation:

ARTICLE I

The name of the corporation is Community Impact Foundation, Inc., a nonprofit corporation.

ARTICLE II

The initial principal address of the corporation is 960 28th Ave., Vero Beach, Florida 32960.

ARTICLE III

The organization is formed so as to constitute a religious, charitable, and educational organization to engage in the educational activities and the propagation of the Christian faith. Activities shall include, but not be limited to; Engaging in noncommercial educational broadcasting; Operation of broadcasting facilities and stations; Broadcasting programs that advance the educational, literary, charitable and religious interests of the community(s) where it operates such noncommercial educational station(s); Production and distribution of religious and educational programs for radio, television and the Internet; Establishment and maintenance of schools and programs of educational instruction; Conducting meetings, concerts, and seminars; and such lawful activities as advance the religious, charitable, and educational interests the members of this organization; Soliciting funds, collecting monies, receiving gifts and bequests, and otherwise raising money and dispersing it to fulfill the stated purpose.

The purposes for which the corporation is organized are exclusively educational, literary, charitable and religious within the meaning of section 501c(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law.

ARTICLE IV

Membership of this corporation shall constitute all persons hereinafter named as incorporators, and directors, and such others as, from time to time hereafter may become members in the manner provided in the by-laws. A two-thirds vote in any regular or special meeting called for in the manner provided in the by-laws shall elect to the membership any adult United States citizen.

ARTICLE V

The affairs of the corporation shall be managed by the officers, who, in turn, are to be advised by the directors of the corporation who may hold no particular office. The qualifications, duties, terms, and other matters relating to the Board of Directors of the Corporation shall be provided in the Bylaws. The Board of Directors may vest management responsibility for selected matters in committees, officers, offices, and employees of the Corporation, as deemed appropriate from time to time.

The initial Board of Directors shall consist of five (5) persons. The number of directors may be increased or decreased by the Board of Directors, by amending these Articles of Incorporation, or by amending the Bylaws, any of which shall have the same force and effect. However, the number of directors may not be decreased to less than three (3)
